The Trail Foundation

The Trail Foundation (TTF)

A 501(c)3 dedicated to protecting, enhancing, and connecting the Butler Hike-and-Bike Trail at Lady Bird Lake for the benefit of all.

TTF/City of Austin Partnership Timeline

- 1971 – Public-private civic effort formed led by the Citizen's Committee for a More Beautiful Town Lake
- 2003 – Town Lake Trail Foundation (now The Trail Foundation) was formed to continue the work of the Citizen's Committee and ensure that the Trail remains one of Austin's outstanding places
- 2014 – Boardwalk opens, completes the 10+ mile loop of the Ann and Roy Butler Trail
- 2015 – TTF adopted the Butler Trail at Lady Bird Lake Urban Forestry and Natural Areas Management Guidelines, developed by Siglo Group in consultation with TTF, Austin Parks and Recreation (PARD) and the City of Austin Watershed Protection Department (WPD).
- 2018 – PARD and TTF begin discussions to formalize partnership
- 2020 – Formal process begins to enter into phased Parkland Operations & Maintenance Agreement (POMA) with PARD

TTF Investment & Public Benefit

Since 2003, TTF has invested more than

$17,550,000
