Comments: Riverside Meadows is a very high crime area with home & vehicle break-ins. I believe a trail opening on Anise Dr will add to the problem. In addition, there is barely room for resident parking and no room for trail user parking.

And finally, the trail is not going to be ADA accessible.

4 Comments: My only concern is that the access point #4 is so close to our house and neighbors that I'd fear more vandalism because we'd be even more exposed. We already have a severe problem with breakins and vandalism in this area. I'd love to see this proposed trail exist but not at the expense of our safety

Comments: I moved to Austin for it's bike and dog - friendliness AND it's plethora of urban open space. The east side of Austin is a bit less endowed in that area AND I would love to see improvements, NOT "development". Trails AND open space ARE improvements AND ARE PART OF what makes Austin cool.
