

Summary of the Current Naming Process verses the Proposed Code Amendment

Current Naming Process (Title 14 of the LDC)	Proposed Code Amendment	Proposed Code Amendment
1. An application is required to be submitted to PARD. The application should include information on the significance of the name as it relates to their contribution to the park system.	1. (Non-Financial) An application is required to be submitted to PARD. The required back-up information shall include signatures from individual's households (from the required radius) demonstrating the support for the naming.	1. (Financial Contribution) An application is required to be submitted to PARD. The application would detail the financial contribution selected by the applicant.
2. The City's Public Information Office notifies the public through the Community Registry. A 90 day process begins where letters of support or other names are submitted to PARD by the general public.	2. The City's Public Information Office notifies the public through the Community Registry. A 90 day process begins where letters of support or other names are submitted to PARD by the general public, with the appropriate support material.	2. N/A
3. Staff provides the suggested names to the Land & Facilities Committee.	3. Staff provides the suggested names to the Land & Facilities Committee.	3. Staff provides the suggested name to the Land & Facilities Committee.
4. Parks & Recreation Board makes a recommendation to the City Council.	4. Parks & Recreation Board makes a recommendation to the City Council.	4. Parks & Recreation Board makes a recommendation to the City Council.
5. City Council approves the park name.	5. City Council approves the park name.	5. City Council approves the park name.