CALL TO ORDER

1. CITIZENS COMMUNICATION

Citizens signed up prior to the meeting being called to order will each be allowed a three-minute allotment to address their concerns regarding items not posted on the agenda.

2. APPROVAL OF MINUTES

3. OLD BUSINESS

- a. Discussion and possible action on a presentation by Lupe Sosa and Eliza May of Austinites for Geographic Representation about a proposed resolution for single-member City Council districts. (Cortez/Rhea)
- b. Discussion and possible action regarding the proposed Mission Statement for the Commission. (Reynolds/Davis)
- c. Discussion and possible action regarding the 2011 Work Plan objective to raise awareness among Austin's citizens of our mission as advocates against discrimination. (Davis/Rhea)

4. NEW BUSINESS

- a. Discussion and possible action on a resolution from Thomas Esparza of the Austin Commission on Immigrant Affairs about the “Secure” Communities initiative and its detrimental effects on relations between the people of Austin and Austin’s law enforcement agencies. (Davis/Cortez)
- b. Discussion regarding the extent to which the City Attorney’s Office is available to research and provide legal opinions to the Commission regarding its duties under Section 2-1-148 of the City Code. This includes, but is not limited to, Subsection (C) (1), which requires the Commission to “advise and consult with the city council on all matters involving racial, religious, or ethnic discrimination, and devise practices to promote equal opportunity,” and Subsection (C) (3), which requires the Commission to “recommend to the City Council legislation to aid in programs designed to eliminate prejudice and discrimination.” (Reynolds/Rhea)
- c. Discussion regarding the use of “new media” as a way to increase the Commission’s on-line visibility. (Rhea/Cortez)

5. STAFF BRIEFINGS

- Report by Carla Scales: on the outcome of the most recent investigation into charges of racism in the Austin Parks Department.

6. FUTURE AGENDA ITEMS

- Commissioners propose agenda items for future meetings.
