

Environmental Board Briefing – March 7, 2012

The Department of Aviation would like to present an overview of the need for a new site development ordinance for the Austin-Bergstrom International Airport to replace the original site development ordinance. The new ordinance will govern future permitting and land development requirements for long term planning at ABIA, which were not included in the original ordinance. Staff and consultant team will highlight key environmental provisions of the proposed new ordinance.