Additional Backup Information

On March 20, 2012 the Public Health and Human Services subcommittee of the City Council recommended that Council consider expanding the approved scope of use of the Town Lake Animal Center site allowed by Resolution No. 20110623-096 and the related license agreement. The expanded scope of use permitted under the amendment to the license agreement will be allowed only within the existing term of the license agreement, and Austin Pets Alive will pay all costs associated with the operations and maintenance of the site.
