Additional Backup Information

This contract underwrites a portion of the Capital Area Food Bank (CAFB) Director of Programs and Agency Services salary which distributes food and grocery products to the Health and Human Services Department Neighborhood Centers, and Dove Springs Recreation Center, at no additional cost.

The City of Austin receives an annual formula-based Community Services on the Block Grant (CSBG) from the Texas Department of Housing and Community Affairs. The CSBG grant provides administrative support to a network of local Community Action Agencies that provide services to low-income residents. The City of Austin is considered the "Community Action Agency" for Travis County.

This grant provides funding for the delivery of basic needs, case management, preventive health, and employment support services to low-income residents through the City's six neighborhood centers and three field offices. The City contracts with the Capital Area Food Bank to provide food at the centers for the delivery of basic needs.

Capital Area Food Bank is a listed partner with the City of Austin in the Texas Department of Housing and Community Affairs, Community Services Block Grant to provide food and groceries products.
