(H) (1) No City official or employee shall solicit or accept other employment to be performed or compensation to be received while still a City official or employee, if the employment or compensation could reasonably be expected to impair independence in judgment or performance of City duties.

(2) If a City official or employee accepts or is soliciting a promise of future employment from any person or entity who has a substantial interest in a person, entity or property which would be affected by any decision upon which the official or employee might reasonably be expected to act, investigate, advise, or make a recommendation, the official or employee shall disclose that fact to the board or commission on which he serves or to his supervisor and shall take no further action on matters regarding the potential future employer.

(I) No salaried City official or employee shall use his official position to secure a special privilege or exemption for himself or others, or to secure confidential information for any purpose other than official responsibilities.

(A) A City official or employee may not participate in a vote or decision on a matter affecting a natural person, entity, or property in which the official or employee has a substantial interest; provided, however, that this provision shall not prohibit any member of the city council from participating in a discussion relating to a

(A) A substantial interest of a spouse of a City official or employee shall be deemed to apply to that official or employee for the purposes of Sections 2-7-63 (Prohibition on Conflict of Interest) and 2-7-64 (Disclosure of Conflict of Interest) concerning disclosure and recusal or reassignment.

(B) If the spouse of a City official or employee does business through a partnership or other entity, the substantial interests of that partnership or entity shall not be deemed under Section 2-7-61 (Conducting Business Through Partnerships, Professional Corporations, and Other Entities) to apply to the City official or employee.

(C) A City official or a City employee may not participate in a vote or decision affecting a substantial interest of a person to whom the official or employee is related in the first or second degree of consanguinity or affinity. (D) For the purposes of Subsection (C): A relative other than a spouse has a substantial interest if:

(1) the person owns 10 percent or more of the voting stock or shares of the entity or owns either 10 percent or more or $15,000 or more of the fair market value of the entity; or

(2) funds received by the person from the entity exceed 10 percent of the person's gross income for the previous year; or

§ 2-7-67 RESTRICTIONS ON PROVIDING REPRESENTATION OF OTHERS.

(A) For the purpose of this section, the following definitions shall apply unless the context clearly indicates or requires a different meaning.

(1) BEFORE THE CITY means before the city council, a board or commission, or a City official or employee.

(2) CASE, PROJECT OR MATTER means to refer to specific cases, projects or regulatory matters, rather than generic policies, procedures or legislation of general application. For instance, the zoning process or site plan review process is not a "case, project or matter" within the meaning of this section; however, a specific zoning case or site plan would constitute a "case, project or matter" subject to the restrictions imposed in this section. It is not the intent of this chapter, and this chapter shall not be construed, to proscribe the practice of any profession or occupation by former City officials and employees.

(3) REPRESENT means all communications with and appearances before the City in which the City is asked to make a decision, as that term is defined in this chapter. The term represent does not include communications and appearances involving only ministerial action on the part of the City.

(B) A City employee in a position which involves significant decision-making, advisory, or supervisory responsibility, or a City official who leaves the service or employment of the City shall not, within 12 months after leaving that employment or service, represent any other person or entity in any formal or informal appearance, if the City official or employee has received or shall receive remuneration from the person, entity or members of the entity being represented:

(1) before the City concerning a case, project or matter over which the person exercised discretionary authority as a City employee or official; or

(2) before any other agency on a case, project or matter over which the person exercised discretionary authority as a City employee or official.

(C) A former City employee or official who is subject to the requirements of Subsection (B) shall, during the 24 months after leaving the service or employment of the City, disclose his previous position and responsibilities with the City and the work performed, if any, as a City employee or official regarding the matter for which he is appearing before the City whenever he represents any other person or entity in any formal or informal appearance before the City.

(D) In any formal or informal appearance before the City, a person representing a person or entity which employs a former City official or employee who had discretionary authority over the project or matter for which the person or entity is appearing before the City shall disclose any former involvement of such former City official or employee in the project or matter. This disclosure requirement shall be in effect for 24 months after the former City official or City employee leaves City service or employment.

(E) This section shall become effective from and after February 1, 1987. This section shall not apply to persons who left the service or employment of the City prior to February 1, 1987.
