

SUMMARY OF RECOMMENDATIONS

Draft 6/22/2013 (to be presented to SFPB on 6/24/13)

WHAT IS A FARM WITHIN CITY LIMITS?

Topic	Current Code	Urban Farm	Neighborhood Farm
Definition	URBAN FARM means a parcel of land between 1 and 5 acres that is agriculturally cultivated by a person solely for the production of organic produce to be sold for profit.	URBAN FARM use is the use of a site that can consist of multiple contiguous parcels that is at least one acre in size cultivated primarily for the sustainable production of agricultural products to be sold for profit and may provide agricultural education activities and other special events, as permitted by section 25-2-863(3). Agricultural education activities include volunteer programs, farm tours, cooking classes, youth programs and farming classes.	SAME AS URBAN FARM EXCEPT less than one acre .
Dwellings	Exactly one dwelling is permitted and required for an urban farm.	The maximum number of dwellings allowed depends on the base zoning of a lot. For SF-1 and SF-2, that means one dwelling. For SF-3, that means two dwellings. A farm doesn't need a dwelling, but you cannot raise animals if there is no dwelling on site. Auxiliary structures (such as greenhouses and sheds) are allowed regardless of whether there is a home on site. The residential character of the lot and dwelling must be maintained.	SAME AS URBAN FARM
Employees	Urban farms can have one employee per acre and one employee for each partial acre. So, someone with 2.5 acres can have 3 employees.	If an urban farm has more than 2 paid employees per acre + 2 employees for any partial acre, the farm must provide 1 parking space per additional employee. A 2.4 acre farm could have 6 employees on site at a given time. A 1.9 acre farm could have 4 paid employees at a given time.	A neighborhood farm can have 1 paid employee working at a given time. The owners of the property are not considered employees.

Environmental protection	No non-organic fertilizer may be used. If manure is used, it must be composted first. Urban farms are a conditional use in the Drinking Water Protection Zone and in the 25-year floodplain. Otherwise, they are permitted. Organic agriculture must be practiced.	No synthetic inputs may be used. Sustainable practices are required, defined by the City's Integrated Pest Management Plan. Urban Farms are allowed within the Critical Water Quality Zone (a buffer around creeks/streams) if farm operations are located at least 25 feet from the centerline of a creek. In suburban watersheds, they must be at least 50 feet from the centerline of a minor waterway, 100 feet from the centerline of an intermediate waterway, and 150 feet from the centerline of a major waterway. Within the CWQZ, uses are limited to vegetable plots, fruit trees and pathways (e.g. no animal raising or processing), and no structures (dwelling, sheds, large compost piles, etc) are allowed, with the exception of limited fencing (with WPD consent).	SAME AS URBAN FARM

WHAT CAN A FARMER DO ON A FARM WITHIN CITY LIMITS?

Topic	Current Code	Urban Farm	Neighborhood Farm
Animal Raising	An enclosure used to keep 2 or more fowl must be kept 50 feet from the nearest residential structure. Raising [and processing] fowl is permitted.	An enclosure used to keep 2-10 fowl must be kept at least 20 feet from the nearest residential structure. An enclosure to keep more than 10 fowl must be at least 40 feet from nearest residential structure. Farmers can raise, process, and compost 1 animal (fowl, rabbits, or a combo) per week per 1/10th of an acre that you have. You can raise, process, and compost as many fish as you need using aquaponics systems only. Any animal composting must be at least 50 feet from the nearest residential structure that isn't yours. Animal processing must take place out of view of the public. If a smell or other nuisance occurs, residents contact Code Compliance to address the problem. Urban farms that have livestock (sheep, pigs, and goats) must obtain a conditional use permit in every zone. On-site processing of sheep, pigs, or goats is prohibited.	An enclosure used to keep 2-10 fowl must be kept at least 20 feet from the nearest residential structure. An enclosure to keep more than 10 fowl must be at least 40 feet from nearest residential structure. Raising of fowl, rabbits, and aquatic foods (using aquaponics systems) is permitted. On-site processing or composting of animals is not permitted. A dwelling is required for the raising of animals. If a smell or other nuisance occurs, residents contact Code Compliance to address the problem. No livestock (sheep, pigs, goats) are permitted.
Events	No clear restrictions within the Urban Farm Ordinance.	Agricultural education activities and special events are permitted. Agricultural education activities include volunteer programs, farm tours, cooking classes, youth programs and farming classes. Large events (50+ attendees) Large events or non-educational events that of any size that charge a fee require a Temporary Use Permit administered by Planning and Development Review. TUPs should be renewed once every 6-months.	Agricultural education activities and special events are permitted. Agricultural education activities include volunteer programs, farm tours, cooking classes, youth programs and farming classes. Small events (0-25 attendees) Small educational or non-educational events are permitted an average of once per month.

		Medium events (26-49 attendees) Small educational or non-educational events are limited to 12 per 6-month period. Small events (0-25 attendees) Small educational or non-educational events are permitted.	All other events require a Temporary Use Permit administered by Planning and Development Review.
Sale of Products	Only agricultural products raised on the property are allowed to be sold on site.	Urban farmers are allowed to sell unlimited agricultural products produced on their farm or another farm that they own at their own farm stand. Products produced on someone else's farm may be sold as long as the products don't take up more than 10% of the farm stand's area and are produced in the state of Texas. Agricultural Products are produce, meat, fish, honey, dairy, seeds, live plants intended for food production and compost products produced by a farmer. A non-electrified sign no larger than 4 square feet is permitted.	Agricultural products raised by the farmer or produced within the state of Texas may be sold from the site or distributed off-site to buyers. On-site farm stands are not permitted. Sales must be conducted out of sight of the general public on the property, and no more than three customer-related trips per day are permitted (this requirement is in accordance with the Home Occupation ordinance of code). A non-electrified sign no larger than 4 square feet is permitted.

SUMMARY OF NON-CODE RECOMMENDATIONS

1. Create Urban Farming best practices handbook, accessible through the SUACG website. This should include best practices about how to do urban farming in a neighborhood context that is compatible with residential areas.
2. Grandfather CO's for existing urban farms and dedicate a staff person to usher these farms through the process.
