Additional Backup Information

Renea Hicks has been the City's appellate lawyer on the Whittington litigation for many years. The right to take issue in this condemnation case was decided in the City's favor by the Texas Supreme Court. Afterwards, the trial court entered a final judgment in May 2013. The Whittingtons have appealed that judgment. They challenge the judge's determination about the parties' rights to pre judgment interest. The increase in outside counsel contract is to pay for the additional work now required to handle this further appeal.
