

Hi,

I live in northwest Austin and support the final district 10 map from November 6, 2013. My family identifies much more with the concerns and issues of central Austin, rather than the Lake Travis and far north portions of the city.

I want city council representation that understands my traffic, land / property development, and school district issues.

Thanks for all your work on developing these district maps!

Regards,

Gordon Turner