

Craig,

I was appalled when I saw the first redistricting map that combined west Austin with far northeast Austin, including not just single family neighborhoods, but also industrial areas. The revised map, which joins west Austin with District 10, is an improvement. Please retain the boundaries of this current map, with District 10 grouping similar single family neighborhoods in the central and near-northwest regions.

Thank you,
Linda Dickens