

I live in northwest Austin, and I support the final map from November 6, 2013. I identify with central Austin and want city council representation that understands my traffic, development and school district issues. Thank you for your hard work on this issue.

Sincerely,
Diane Selken