Additional Backup Information

This contract provides the management and operation of a midnight basketball program designed to empower at-risk Youths through an outreach basketball program that provides positive alternatives to criminal behavior. The program will be delivered in a safe and structured environment and support positive growth for young people. This program will run year-round on Friday nights and provide outreach methods and participant tracking to insure success.

The program will be free to all youths between 10-19 years of age residing in the City of Austin. The Program will also provide weekly programming to educate participants on health, wellness, education, employment, cultural enrichment and general recreation. Facilities will be provided by the Parks and Recreation Department

A team composed of personnel from the Parks and Recreation Department with expertise in this area evaluated the proposals and unanimously scored this proposal as the best evaluated proposal for these services of the two proposals received. Evaluation criteria included system concept and solution, experience, pricing, local business presence, and acceptance of the City of Austin's terms and conditions.

This request allows for the development of an agreement with a qualified offeror that Council selects. If the City is unsuccessful negotiating a satisfactory agreement with the selected offeror, negotiations will cease with that provider. Staff will return to Council so that Council may select another qualified offeror and authorize contract negotiations with that provider.
