Additional Backup Information

The Travis Central Appraisal District (TCAD) informed the City of Austin that pursuant to the disaster declaration signed by the Governor on December 13, 2013, the City may request that TCAD reappraise for 2013 the properties affected by the October 2013 floods. For this action to occur, TCAD requires a resolution from the taxing entity no later than February 1, 2014, in order to conduct the reappraisal. Authorized by Texas Tax Code Section 23.02, beginning on the date of the disaster and for the remainder of 2013, the City will apply its tax rate to the reappraised market value of the properties that are reappraised by the Travis Central Appraisal District. Approval of this resolution initiates the reappraisal process for the properties affected by the flooding.
