Sara E. LeVine -I would like to discuss what changes can occur to city codes in regard to ride share companies. We need to address the severe shortage of taxis and viable alternatives in Austin for people looking to get around the city. I started a petition Monday, the 24th that has over 2400 signatures and hundreds of intelligent and thoughtful comments from taxpayers asking for better public transportation, the legalization of ride share companies, and an easing of ticketing and towing practices on cars left overnight downtown. Please take a minute to read your constituents thoughts on how Austin can improve on both the drinking and driving problem and for the average commuter.

Bill Oakey - Austin affordability

David Carter - Sidewalk improvement

Joy Pecoraro - MBE/WBE Program and Economic Development

Rae Nadler-Olenick - Water fluoridation

Robert Reynolds - Public transportation especially the new 801 bus

Mike Metschan - COA transportation
