Additional Backup Information

This item is for Council discussion and possible action on a proposed consent decree between the City and the U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ) relating to claims asserted by DOJ about hiring practices within the Austin Fire Department. The proposed consent decree would not become effective until approved by both the City Council and DOJ, and then by a United States Federal judge in a legal proceeding. A memorandum providing more information about the proposed decree is included in the supporting materials for this item.
