

CITY OF AUSTIN PARKS AND RECREATION DEPARTMENT

Presentation:
COA-AISD Interlocal Cooperation Agreement for ACE Reading and Tutoring Intervention Program

Parks and Recreation Board Meeting
September 23, 2014

Interlocal Agreement

- Each party represents and warrants that in the performance of its respective obligations as set forth in the Agreement, it is carrying out a duly authorized governmental function, which it is authorized to perform individually under the applicable statutes of the State of Texas and/or its charter.
- AISD represents that the amount of compensation to be made to it under the Agreement will fairly compensate it for the services or functions contained in the agreement.
- Each governing body must approve the negotiation and execution of the agreement.

Background

- City of Austin recognizes the importance of early intervention to improve the reading and writing skills of Austin’s youth.
- Supports the fundamental concept of “ACE: A Community for Education”:
 - Kindergarten - 2nd grade Reading Tutoring Intervention Program offered through the University of Texas Dana Center.
 - Research-based, data-driven early reading intervention program which places highly trained AmeriCorps tutors in low-income schools.
 - Program mission is to ensure that Kindergarten through second grade students advance to grade level before third grade.
 - Provides bilingual early literacy tutoring and instruction support for approximately 2,000 AISD students.
 - On average, 70%-75% of ACE tutored students advance to grade level benchmarks in reading by the end of the school year.
 - For the 2014-2015 school year, ACE will serve 24 elementary schools at an annual cost of $690,000.

City of Austin Services and Deliverables

Will provide $100,000 in funding at program year end to AISD to be allocated in the following manner to Eastside Vertical Team elementary schools:
