

Draft Language for Amendments to City Code Chapter 15-6

Language will allow existing customers (of waste haulers and the City) to continue to be existing customers but going forward, the City will be solely responsible for fourplex and under while waste haulers will be solely responsible five or more dwelling units and commercial.

§ 15-6-11 COLLECTION SERVICE

- (A) Except as provided in Section 15-6-13, the department shall make collection service available to all premises in the City.
- (B) The department shall charge the fee prescribed by the city council for the service.
- (C) An individual who removes or transports solid waste from his or her residence is not entitled to credit on his or her account.

§ 15-6-13 PRIVATE COLLECTION SERVICE

- (A) Except as provided by Subsection (D), the director may arrange for or require a person to obtain licensed private collection service, if the director determines that the premises cannot be adequately served by the City.
- (B) The owner or other person in charge of a premises subject to this chapter may decline collection service through a written agreement with the City. The department may not charge for collection service at the affected property while the agreement is in effect.
- (C) The department may not charge a person who obtains licensed private collection service under this section.
- (D) Unless a premises with four or less residential dwelling units obtained a licensed private collection service prior to November 12, 2014, and continues to use a licensed private collection service, a person in control of the premises described in this subsection shall use Department collection services.
- (E) Unless a premises with five or more residential dwelling units used Department collection services prior to November 12, 2014, and continues to use Department collection services, a person in control of the premises described in this subsection shall use a licensed private collection service.
- (F) Unless a commercial premises used Department collection services prior to November 12, 2014, and continues to use Department collection services, a person in control of the premises described in this subsection shall use a licensed private collection service.