

Since the launch of the first Pay for Success project in 2011, interest has grown rapidly in exploring or adopting Pay for Success models across the country. Below is a select list of states, counties and cities that are actively engaging with Pay for Success contracting.

Launched Projects

- Massachusetts – Juvenile Justice
- New York – Justice/Workforce Development
- New York City – Juvenile Justice
- Salt Lake County, UT – Early Education
- Chicago, IL – Early Education

Active Project Construction/Feasibility

- Alameda County, CA – Asthma
- Baltimore, MD – Asthma
- Connecticut – Child Welfare
- Cuyahoga County, OH – Homelessness/Foster Care
- Denver, CO – Homelessness
- Federal – Veterans Feasibility
- Fresno County, CA – Asthma
- Illinois – Dually Involved Youth
- Los Angeles County, CA – Feasibility
- Los Angeles County /First 5 – Feasibility
- Massachusetts – Adult Basic Education
- Memphis – Feasibility
- Minnesota – Homelessness
- New York State – Juvenile Justice, Early Childhood
- Oklahoma – Recidivism
- Orange County/First 5 – Feasibility
- Salt Lake County, UT – Feasibility
- San Francisco County, CA – Feasibility
- Santa Clara County, CA – Chronic Homelessness, Mental Health
- South Carolina – Early Childhood
- Washington, DC – Teen Pregnancy

PFS Exploration

Pending Legislation – Idaho; Los Angeles County, CA; New Jersey; Oregon; Washington; Texas

Procurement – Michigan; Ohio (expected); Philadelphia

Federal Interest – Treasury Department; Department of Labor; Department of Justice; Department of Health and Human Services; Social Innovation Fund