

Youth Education Programs

School Year 2014-2015

Earth Camp

Four days of watershed,
aquifer and water quality field science

Target

5th grade
AISD
Title I

Participation

1,682 students

Results

60% improvement from pre to post test

Earth School

One hour classroom presentation about Austin's watersheds, aquifer and water quality issues

Target

5th grade

AISD

Not attending Earth Camp

Results

96% of AISD
reached through Earth School or Earth Camp

Participation

5.583 students

Clean Creek Campus

Watershed and Edward's Aquifer
service learning

Target

3rd – 8th grade

Participants

1,934 students

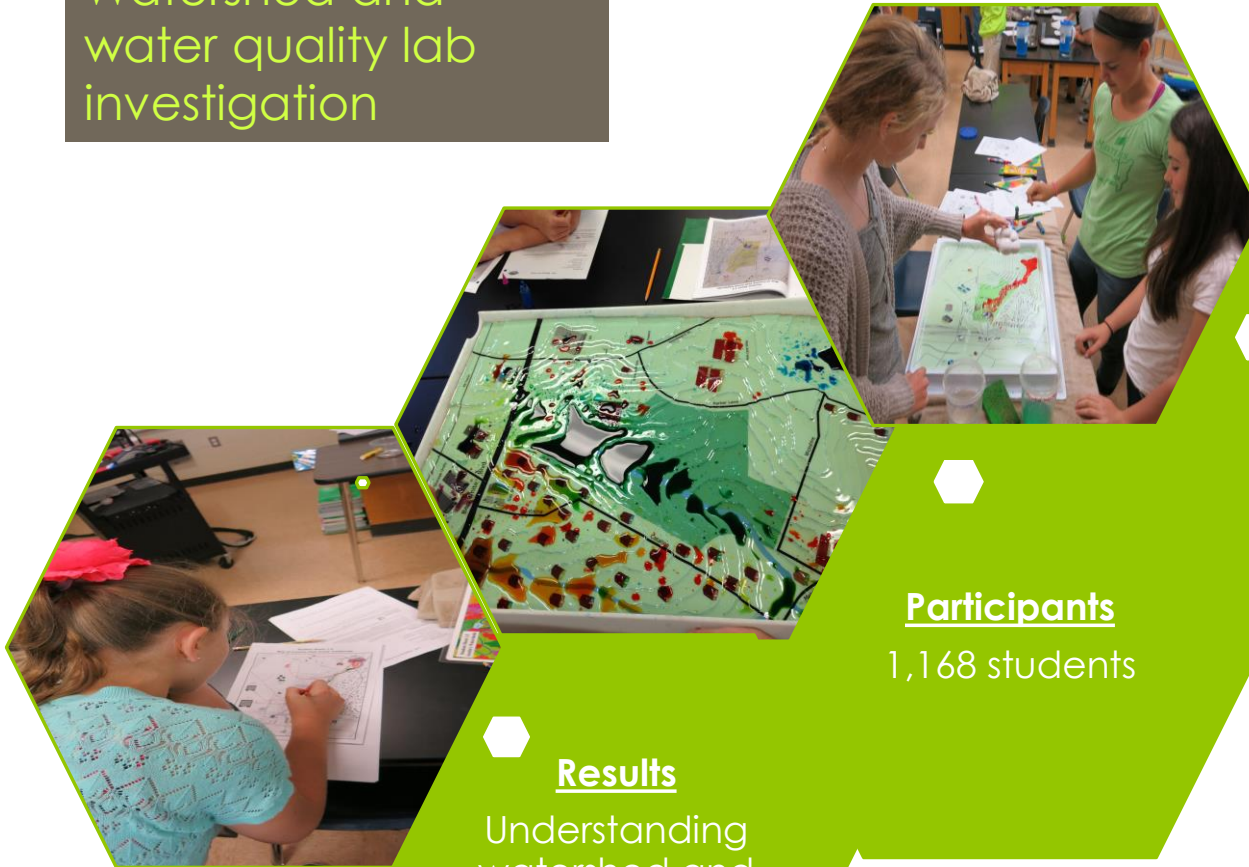

Results

28 service projects that benefit Austin's creeks

Watershed Detectives

Watershed and
water quality lab investigation

Target

6th – 8th grade

Participants

1,168 students

Results

Understanding
watershed and
pollution runoff

Hydrofiles

Watersheds, the Edwards Aquifer,
and water quality
classroom and field investigations

Target

9th – 12th grade

Participation

583 students

Results

Scientific research , data collection and evaluation of Austin's water quality

Clean Creek Camp

Summer family fun
with water quality education and service project

Target

Families with 9-13
year olds

Participation

60 adults and children

Results

Families learn about Austin's Water Resources and how to keep them clean

Austin Youth River Watch

High school job monitoring water quality and environmental and academic youth development activities

Target

9th – 12th grade
AISD at- risk students

Participation

91 students

Results

100% of students graduate high school

Susan Wall

Conservation Program Coordinator

OTC Floor 11

512-974-6571

Susan.wall@austintexas.gov

www.austintexas.gov/watershed/youthed