

PUBLIC HEARING INFORMATION

Although applicants and/or their agent(s) are expected to attend a public hearing, you are not required to attend. However, if you do attend, you have the opportunity to speak FOR or AGAINST the proposed development or change. You may also contact a neighborhood or environmental organization that has expressed an interest in an application affecting your neighborhood.

During a public hearing, the board or commission may postpone or continue an application's hearing to a later date, or recommend approval or denial of the application. If the board or commission announces a specific date and time for a postponement or continuation that is not later than 60 days from the announcement, no further notice is required.

A board or commission's decision may be appealed by a person with standing to appeal, or an interested party that is identified as a person who can appeal the decision. The body holding a public hearing on an appeal will determine whether a person has standing to appeal the decision.

An interested party is defined as a person who is the applicant or record owner of the subject property, or who communicates an interest to a board or commission by:

- delivering a written statement to the board or commission before or during the public hearing that generally identifies the issues of concern (it may be delivered to the contact person listed on a notice); or
 - appearing and speaking for the record at the public hearing;
- and:
- occupies a primary residence that is within 500 feet of the subject property or proposed development;
 - is the record owner of property within 500 feet of the subject property or proposed development; or
 - is an officer of an environmental or neighborhood organization that has an interest in or whose declared boundaries are within 500 feet of the subject property or proposed development.

A notice of appeal must be filed with the director of the responsible department no later than 14 days after the decision. An appeal form may be available from the responsible department.

For additional information on the City of Austin's land development process, visit our web site: www.ci.austin.tx.us/development.

Written comments must be submitted to the board or commission (or the contact person listed on the notice) before or at a public hearing. Your comments should include the board or commission's name, the scheduled date of the public hearing, and the Case Number and the contact person listed on the notice.

Case Number(s): NRD-2015-0120 PR-2015-124641

Contact: Beth Johnson, 512-974-7801 or elizabeth.johnson@austintexas.gov

Public Hearing:

November 16, 2015 Historic Landmark Commission

Richard G. Tate
Your Name (please print)

3304 Glenview Ave
Your address(es) affected by this application

RL Tate _____
Signature Date

☒ I am in favor
☐ I object

Comments: _____

If you use this form to comment, it may be returned to:

City of Austin

Planning and Zoning Department

Beth Johnson

P. O. Box 1088

Austin, TX 78767-8810

Fax Number: (512) 974-9104

PUBLIC HEARING INFORMATION

Although applicants and/or their agent(s) are expected to attend a public hearing, you are not required to attend. However, if you do attend, you have the opportunity to speak FOR or AGAINST the proposed development or change. You may also contact a neighborhood or environmental organization that has expressed an interest in an application affecting your neighborhood.

During a public hearing, the board or commission may postpone or continue an application's hearing to a later date, or recommend approval or denial of the application. If the board or commission announces a specific date and time for a postponement or continuation that is not later than 60 days from the announcement, no further notice is required.

A board or commission's decision may be appealed by a person with standing to appeal, or an interested party that is identified as a person who can appeal the decision. The body holding a public hearing on an appeal will determine whether a person has standing to appeal the decision.

An interested party is defined as a person who is the applicant or record owner of the subject property, or who communicates an interest to a board or commission by:

- delivering a written statement to the board or commission before or during the public hearing that generally identifies the issues of concern (it may be delivered to the contact person listed on a notice); or
- appearing and speaking for the record at the public hearing;

and:

- occupies a primary residence that is within 500 feet of the subject property or proposed development;
- is the record owner of property within 500 feet of the subject property or proposed development; or
- is an officer of an environmental or neighborhood organization that has an interest in or whose declared boundaries are within 500 feet of the subject property or proposed development.

A notice of appeal must be filed with the director of the responsible department no later than 14 days after the decision. An appeal form may be available from the responsible department.

For additional information on the City of Austin's land development process, visit our web site: www.austintexas.gov/planning.

Written comments must be submitted to the board or commission (or the contact person listed on the notice) before or at a public hearing. Your comments should include the board or commission's name, the scheduled date of the public hearing, and the Case Number and the contact person listed on the notice.

Case Number(s): HDP-2015-0976 PR-2015-121671

Contact: Steve Sadowsky, 512-974-6454

Public Hearing: November 16, 2015 Historic Landmark Commission

Scott McAfee
Your Name (please print)

2410 Bridle Path

Your address(es) affected by this application

Scott McAfee
Signature

☐ I am in favor
☒ I object

11/11/15
Date

Comments: _____

If you use this form to comment, it may be returned to:

City of Austin-Planning & Zoning Department

Steve Sadowsky

P. O. Box 1088

Austin, TX 78767-8810

PRD/CHPO
NOV 17 2015

PUBLIC HEARING INFORMATION

Although applicants and/or their agent(s) are expected to attend a public hearing, you are not required to attend. However, if you do attend, you have the opportunity to speak FOR or AGAINST the proposed development or change. You may also contact a neighborhood or environmental organization that has expressed an interest in an application affecting your neighborhood.

During a public hearing, the board or commission may postpone or continue an application's hearing to a later date, or recommend approval or denial of the application. If the board or commission announces a specific date and time for a postponement or continuation that is not later than 60 days from the announcement, no further notice is required.

A board or commission's decision may be appealed by a person with standing to appeal, or an interested party that is identified as a person who can appeal the decision. The body holding a public hearing on an appeal will determine whether a person has standing to appeal the decision.

An interested party is defined as a person who is the applicant or record owner of the subject property, or who communicates an interest to a board or commission by:

- delivering a written statement to the board or commission before or during the public hearing that generally identifies the issues of concern (it may be delivered to the contact person listed on a notice); or
 - appearing and speaking for the record at the public hearing;
- and:
- occupies a primary residence that is within 500 feet of the subject property or proposed development;
 - is the record owner of property within 500 feet of the subject property or proposed development; or
 - is an officer of an environmental or neighborhood organization that has an interest in or whose declared boundaries are within 500 feet of the subject property or proposed development.

A notice of appeal must be filed with the director of the responsible department no later than 14 days after the decision. An appeal form may be available from the responsible department.

For additional information on the City of Austin's land development process, visit our web site: www.austintexas.gov/planning.

Written comments must be submitted to the board or commission (or the contact person listed on the notice) before or at a public hearing. Your comments should include the board or commission's name, the scheduled date of the public hearing, and the Case Number and the contact person listed on the notice.

Case Number(s): HDP-2015-1006 PR-2015-125872

Contact: Steve Sadowsky, 512-974-6454

Public Hearing: November 16, 2015 Historic Landmark Commission

Molly Omelchuck

Your Name (please print)

99 Comal St 78702

Your address(es) affected by this application

M Omelchuck

Signature

11/10/15

Date

Comments:

I strenuously object
the demolition of the home that rests on 1603 Willow St. Prior to Mr. Treviño's recent passing, I have been inside the home and on the property. The home has excellent bones and merely requires updating. This home is an asset to the neighborhood in its present condition.

If you use this form to comment, it may be returned to:

City of Austin

Planning and Zoning Department

Steve Sadowsky

P. O. Box 1088

Austin, TX 78767-8810

Fax Number: (512) 974-9104

PDRD/CHPO

NOV 17 2015

PUBLIC HEARING INFORMATION

Although applicants and/or their agent(s) are expected to attend a public hearing, you are not required to attend. However, if you do attend, you have the opportunity to speak FOR or AGAINST the proposed development or change. You may also contact a neighborhood or environmental organization that has expressed an interest in an application affecting your neighborhood.

During a public hearing, the board or commission may postpone or continue an application's hearing to a later date, or recommend approval or denial of the application. If the board or commission announces a specific date and time for a postponement or continuation that is not later than 60 days from the announcement, no further notice is required.

A board or commission's decision may be appealed by a person with standing to appeal, or an interested party that is identified as a person who can appeal the decision. The body holding a public hearing on an appeal will determine whether a person has standing to appeal the decision.

An interested party is defined as a person who is the applicant or record owner of the subject property, or who communicates an interest to a board or commission by:

- delivering a written statement to the board or commission before or during the public hearing that generally identifies the issues of concern (it may be delivered to the contact person listed on a notice); or
- appearing and speaking for the record at the public hearing;

and:

- occupies a primary residence that is within 500 feet of the subject property or proposed development;
- is the record owner of property within 500 feet of the subject property or proposed development; or
- is an officer of an environmental or neighborhood organization that has an interest in or whose declared boundaries are within 500 feet of the subject property or proposed development.

A notice of appeal must be filed with the director of the responsible department no later than 14 days after the decision. An appeal form may be available from the responsible department.

For additional information on the City of Austin's land development process, visit our web site: www.austintexas.gov/planning.

Written comments must be submitted to the board or commission (or the contact person listed on the notice) before or at a public hearing. Your comments should include the board or commission's name, the scheduled date of the public hearing, and the Case Number and the contact person listed on the notice.

Case Number(s): HDP-2015-1006 PR-2015-125872

Contact: Steve Sadowsky, 512-974-6454

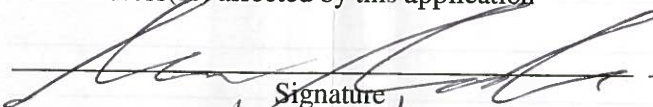

Public Hearing: November 16, 2015 Historic Landmark Commission

Shawn Somerville *Land Use & Design
chair ECC

Your Name (please print)

1508 Willow St 78702

Your address(es) affected by this application

 11/12/15
Signature Date

Comments:

This house possesses much of its original historical features. It would be a great loss to the neighborhood if it were demolished. It greatly contributes to the general character & history of the ECC neighborhood, and is an excellent example of turn-of-the-century Victorian Vernacular construction.

If you use this form to comment, it may be returned to:

City of Austin

Planning and Zoning Department

Steve Sadowsky

P. O. Box 1088

Austin, TX 78767-8810

Fax Number: (512) 974-9104

PDRD/CHPO

NOV 17 2015

PUBLIC HEARING INFORMATION

Although applicants and/or their agent(s) are expected to attend a public hearing, you are not required to attend. However, if you do attend, you have the opportunity to speak FOR or AGAINST the proposed development or change. You may also contact a neighborhood or environmental organization that has expressed an interest in an application affecting your neighborhood.

During a public hearing, the board or commission may postpone or continue an application's hearing to a later date, or recommend approval or denial of the application. If the board or commission announces a specific date and time for a postponement or continuation that is not later than 60 days from the announcement, no further notice is required.

A board or commission's decision may be appealed by a person with standing to appeal, or an interested party that is identified as a person who can appeal the decision. The body holding a public hearing on an appeal will determine whether a person has standing to appeal the decision.

An interested party is defined as a person who is the applicant or record owner of the subject property, or who communicates an interest to a board or commission by:

- delivering a written statement to the board or commission before or during the public hearing that generally identifies the issues of concern (it may be delivered to the contact person listed on a notice); or
- appearing and speaking for the record at the public hearing;

and:

- occupies a primary residence that is within 500 feet of the subject property or proposed development;
- is the record owner of property within 500 feet of the subject property or proposed development; or
- is an officer of an environmental or neighborhood organization that has an interest in or whose declared boundaries are within 500 feet of the subject property or proposed development.

A notice of appeal must be filed with the director of the responsible department no later than 14 days after the decision. An appeal form may be available from the responsible department.

For additional information on the City of Austin's land development process, visit our web site: www.austintexas.gov/planning.

Written comments must be submitted to the board or commission (or the contact person listed on the notice) before or at a public hearing. Your comments should include the board or commission's name, the scheduled date of the public hearing, and the Case Number and the contact person listed on the notice.

Case Number(s): HDP-2015-1006 PR-2015-125872

Contact: Steve Sadowsky, 512-974-6454

Public Hearing: November 16, 2015 Historic Landmark Commission

Kathryn Orr
Your Name (please print)

1508 Willow St.
Your address(es) affected by this application

[Signature]
Signature

<input type="checkbox"/> I am in favor
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Object

11/11/15
Date

Comments: _____

If you use this form to comment, it may be returned to:

City of Austin
Planning and Zoning Department
Steve Sadowsky
P. O. Box 1088
Austin, TX 78767-8810
Fax Number: (512) 974-9104

PDRD/CHPO
NOV 17 2015

PUBLIC HEARING INFORMATION

Although applicants and/or their agent(s) are expected to attend a public hearing, you are not required to attend. However, if you do attend, you have the opportunity to speak FOR or AGAINST the proposed development or change. You may also contact a neighborhood or environmental organization that has expressed an interest in an application affecting your neighborhood.

During a public hearing, the board or commission may postpone or continue an application's hearing to a later date, or recommend approval or denial of the application. If the board or commission announces a specific date and time for a postponement or continuation that is not later than 60 days from the announcement, no further notice is required.

A board or commission's decision may be appealed by a person with standing to appeal, or an interested party that is identified as a person who can appeal the decision. The body holding a public hearing on an appeal will determine whether a person has standing to appeal the decision.

An interested party is defined as a person who is the applicant or record owner of the subject property, or who communicates an interest to a board or commission by:

- delivering a written statement to the board or commission before or during the public hearing that generally identifies the issues of concern (it may be delivered to the contact person listed on a notice); or
 - appearing and speaking for the record at the public hearing;
- and:
- occupies a primary residence that is within 500 feet of the subject property or proposed development;
 - is the record owner of property within 500 feet of the subject property or proposed development; or
 - is an officer of an environmental or neighborhood organization that has an interest in or whose declared boundaries are within 500 feet of the subject property or proposed development.

A notice of appeal must be filed with the director of the responsible department no later than 14 days after the decision. An appeal form may be available from the responsible department.

For additional information on the City of Austin's land development process, visit our web site: www.austintexas.gov/planning.

Written comments must be submitted to the board or commission (or the contact person listed on the notice) before or at a public hearing. Your comments should include the board or commission's name, the scheduled date of the public hearing, and the Case Number and the contact person listed on the notice.

Case Number(s): HDP-2015-1016 PR-2015-107334

Contact: Steve Sadowsky, 512-974-6454

Public Hearing: November 16, 2015 Historic Landmark Commission

Rosemary Hickman

Your Name (please print)

514 West O'Dell St

Your address(es) affected by this application

Rosemary Hickman

Signature

11-12-15

Date

Comments: Homes are being demolished new ones are being built but are not designed to fit into the neighborhood. They are more modern looking.
These kind of structure does nothing to preserve the look of the neighborhood

If you use this form to comment, it may be returned to:

City of Austin-Planning & Zoning Department

Steve Sadowsky

P. O. Box 1088

Austin, TX 78767-8810

PDRD/CHPO

NOV 17 2015

PUBLIC HEARING INFORMATION

Although applicants and/or their agent(s) are expected to attend a public hearing, you are not required to attend. However, if you do attend, you have the opportunity to speak FOR or AGAINST the proposed development or change. You may also contact a neighborhood or environmental organization that has expressed an interest in an application affecting your neighborhood.

During a public hearing, the board or commission may postpone or continue an application's hearing to a later date, or recommend approval or denial of the application. If the board or commission announces a specific date and time for a postponement or continuation that is not later than 60 days from the announcement, no further notice is required.

A board or commission's decision may be appealed by a person with standing to appeal, or an interested party that is identified as a person who can appeal the decision. The body holding a public hearing on an appeal will determine whether a person has standing to appeal the decision.

An interested party is defined as a person who is the applicant or record owner of the subject property, or who communicates an interest to a board or commission by:

- delivering a written statement to the board or commission before or during the public hearing that generally identifies the issues of concern (it may be delivered to the contact person listed on a notice); or
 - appearing and speaking for the record at the public hearing;
- and:
- occupies a primary residence that is within 500 feet of the subject property or proposed development;
 - is the record owner of property within 500 feet of the subject property or proposed development; or
 - is an officer of an environmental or neighborhood organization that has an interest in or whose declared boundaries are within 500 feet of the subject property or proposed development.

A notice of appeal must be filed with the director of the responsible department no later than 14 days after the decision. An appeal form may be available from the responsible department.

For additional information on the City of Austin's land development process, visit our web site: www.austintexas.gov/planning.

Written comments must be submitted to the board or commission (or the contact person listed on the notice) before or at a public hearing. Your comments should include the board or commission's name, the scheduled date of the public hearing, and the Case Number and the contact person listed on the notice.

Case Number(s): HDP-2015-1020 PR-2015-127665

Contact: Steve Sadowsky, 512-974-6454

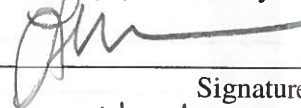

Public Hearing: November 16, 2015 Historic Landmark Commission

BRANDON EASTERLING

Your Name (please print)

3411 FOOTHILL TERRACE

Your address(es) affected by this application

Signature

11/10/15

Date

Comments: We live next door to this home & see no reason or value in keeping any portion of the original home intact. A new home on this lot would be a welcome addition to the neighborhood.

☒ I am in favor
☐ I object

If you use this form to comment, it may be returned to:

City of Austin

Planning and Zoning Department

Steve Sadowsky

P. O. Box 1088

Austin, TX 78767-8810

Fax Number: (512) 974-9104

PDRD/CHPO

NOV 17 2015

PUBLIC HEARING INFORMATION

Although applicants and/or their agent(s) are expected to attend a public hearing, you are not required to attend. However, if you do attend, you have the opportunity to speak FOR or AGAINST the proposed development or change. You may also contact a neighborhood or environmental organization that has expressed an interest in an application affecting your neighborhood.

During a public hearing, the board or commission may postpone or continue an application's hearing to a later date, or recommend approval or denial of the application. If the board or commission announces a specific date and time for a postponement or continuation that is not later than 60 days from the announcement, no further notice is required.

A board or commission's decision may be appealed by a person with standing to appeal, or an interested party that is identified as a person who can appeal the decision. The body holding a public hearing on an appeal will determine whether a person has standing to appeal the decision.

An interested party is defined as a person who is the applicant or record owner of the subject property, or who communicates an interest to a board or commission by:

- delivering a written statement to the board or commission before or during the public hearing that generally identifies the issues of concern (it may be delivered to the contact person listed on a notice); or
- appearing and speaking for the record at the public hearing;

and:

- occupies a primary residence that is within 500 feet of the subject property or proposed development;
- is the record owner of property within 500 feet of the subject property or proposed development; or
- is an officer of an environmental or neighborhood organization that has an interest in or whose declared boundaries are within 500 feet of the subject property or proposed development.

A notice of appeal must be filed with the director of the responsible department no later than 14 days after the decision. An appeal form may be available from the responsible department.

For additional information on the City of Austin's land development process, visit our web site: www.austintexas.gov/planning.

Written comments must be submitted to the board or commission (or the contact person listed on the notice) before or at a public hearing. Your comments should include the board or commission's name, the scheduled date of the public hearing, and the Case Number and the contact person listed on the notice.

Case Number(s): HDP-2015-1021 PR-2015-127671

Contact: Steve Sadowsky, 512-974-6454

Public Hearing: November 16, 2015 Historic Landmark Commission

Kathy Hansen
Your Name (please print)

☐ I am in favor
☒ I object

7809 Gault St. 78757
Your address(es) affected by this application

K Hansen 11/9/15
Signature Date

Comments: The large scale style and design of Casa Rio homes do not fit the neighborhood's aesthetic and historical charm.

If you use this form to comment, it may be returned to:

City of Austin

Planning and Zoning Department

Steve Sadowsky

P. O. Box 1088

Austin, TX 78767-8810

Fax Number: (512) 974-9104

PDRD/CHPO
NOV 17 2015

PUBLIC HEARING INFORMATION

Although applicants and/or their agent(s) are expected to attend a public hearing, you are not required to attend. However, if you have the opportunity to speak FOR or AGAINST development or change. You may also contact an environmental organization that has expressed an interest affecting your neighborhood.

During a public hearing, the board or commission may continue an application's hearing to a later date, or recommend denial of the application. If the board or commission announces a date and time for a postponement or continuation that is more than 30 days from the announcement, no further notice is required.

A board or commission's decision may be appealed by a person with standing to appeal, or an interested party that is identified in the notice. The body holding a public hearing will determine whether a person has standing to appeal the decision.

An interested party is defined as a person who is the applicant, owner of the subject property, or who communicates an interest in the subject property to the board or commission by:

- delivering a written statement to the board or commission during the public hearing that generally identifies the subject property (it may be delivered to the contact person listed on the notice);
- appearing and speaking for the record at the public hearing;
- occupies a primary residence that is within 500 feet of the subject property or proposed development;
- is the record owner of property within 500 feet of the subject property or proposed development; or
- is an officer of an environmental or neighborhood organization with an interest in or whose declared boundaries are within 500 feet of the subject property or proposed development.

A notice of appeal must be filed with the director of the department no later than 14 days after the decision. The notice must be available from the responsible department.

For additional information on the City of Austin's public hearing process, visit our web site: www.austintexas.gov/plan

Written comments must be submitted to the board or commission (or the contact person listed on the notice) before or at a public hearing. Your comments should include the board or commission's name, the scheduled date of the public hearing, and the Case Number and the contact person listed on the notice.

Case Number(s): HDP-2015-1021 PR-2015-127671

Contact: Steve Sadowsky, 512-974-6454

Public Hearing: November 16, 2015 Historic Landmark Commission

Your Name (please print) JOEL CORREA

Your address(es) affected by this application 7809 GAULT ST.

☐ I am in favor
☒ I am in opposition

Signature [Signature]

Date 11/8/15

Comments: No.

If you use this form to comment, it may be required to:

City of Austin
Planning and Zoning Department
Steve Sadowsky
P. O. Box 1088
Austin, TX 78767-8810
Fax Number: (512) 974-9104

PRD/CHPO
NOV 17 2015

on (or the
g. Your scheduled person

mission

am in favor object

7-15
Date

CHPO
2015

PUBLIC HEARING INFORMATION

Although applicants and/or their agent(s) are expected to attend a public hearing, you are not required to attend. However, if you do attend, you have the opportunity to speak FOR or AGAINST the proposed development or change. You may also contact a neighborhood or environmental organization that has expressed an interest in an application affecting your neighborhood.

During a public hearing, the board or commission may postpone or continue an application's hearing to a later date, or recommend approval or denial of the application. If the board or commission announces a specific date and time for a postponement or continuation that is not later than 60 days from the announcement, no further notice is required.

A board or commission's decision may be appealed by a person with standing to appeal, or an interested party that is identified as a person who can appeal the decision. The body holding a public hearing on an appeal will determine whether a person has standing to appeal the decision.

An interested party is defined as a person who is the applicant or record owner of the subject property, or who communicates an interest to a board or commission by:

- delivering a written statement to the board or commission before or during the public hearing that generally identifies the issues of concern (it may be delivered to the contact person listed on a notice); or
- appearing and speaking for the record at the public hearing;

and:

- occupies a primary residence that is within 500 feet of the subject property or proposed development;
- is the record owner of property within 500 feet of the subject property or proposed development; or
- is an officer of an environmental or neighborhood organization that has an interest in or whose declared boundaries are within 500 feet of the subject property or proposed development.

A notice of appeal must be filed with the director of the responsible department no later than 14 days after the decision. An appeal form may be available from the responsible department.

For additional information on the City of Austin's land development process, visit our web site: www.austintexas.gov/planning.

Written comments must be submitted to the board or commission (or the contact person listed on the notice) before or at a public hearing. Your comments should include the board or commission's name, the scheduled date of the public hearing, and the Case Number and the contact person listed on the notice.

Case Number(s): HDP-2015-0976 PR-2015-121671

Contact: Steve Sadowsky, 512-974-6454

Public Hearing: November 16, 2015 Historic Landmark Commission

Frances Nash

Your Name (please print)

2504 Bridle Path, Austin, TX 78703

☐ I am in favor
☒ I object

Your address(es) affected by this application

[Signature]

Signature

Nov 15, 2015

Date

Comments: This elegant small house is a jewel of the neighborhood.
It contributes enormously to the historic character of the neighborhood
Please don't tear it down!

Please don't let our area become soulless and homogenized.

Thank you

If you use this form to comment, it may be returned to:

City of Austin-Planning & Zoning Department

Steve Sadowsky

P. O. Box 1088

Austin, TX 78767-8810

PUBLIC HEARING INFORMATION

Although applicants and/or their agent(s) are expected to attend a public hearing, you are not required to attend. However, if you do attend, you have the opportunity to speak FOR or AGAINST the proposed development or change. You may also contact a neighborhood or environmental organization that has expressed an interest in an application affecting your neighborhood.

During a public hearing, the board or commission may postpone or continue an application's hearing to a later date, or recommend approval or denial of the application. If the board or commission announces a specific date and time for a postponement or continuation that is not later than 60 days from the announcement, no further notice is required.

A board or commission's decision may be appealed by a person with standing to appeal, or an interested party that is identified as a person who can appeal the decision. The body holding a public hearing on an appeal will determine whether a person has standing to appeal the decision.

An interested party is defined as a person who is the applicant or record owner of the subject property, or who communicates an interest to a board or commission by:

- delivering a written statement to the board or commission before or during the public hearing that generally identifies the issues of concern (it may be delivered to the contact person listed on a notice); or
 - appearing and speaking for the record at the public hearing;
- and:
- occupies a primary residence that is within 500 feet of the subject property or proposed development;
 - is the record owner of property within 500 feet of the subject property or proposed development; or
 - is an officer of an environmental or neighborhood organization that has an interest in or whose declared boundaries are within 500 feet of the subject property or proposed development.

A notice of appeal must be filed with the director of the responsible department no later than 14 days after the decision. An appeal form may be available from the responsible department.

For additional information on the City of Austin's land development process, visit our web site: www.austintexas.gov/planning.

Written comments must be submitted to the board or commission (or the contact person listed on the notice) before or at a public hearing. Your comments should include the board or commission's name, the scheduled date of the public hearing, and the Case Number and the contact person listed on the notice.

Case Number(s): HDP-2015-0976 PR-2015-121671

Contact: Steve Sadowsky, 512-974-6454

Public Hearing: November 16, 2015 Historic Landmark Commission

GERALD TORRES

Your Name (please print)

2504 BRIDLE PATH

Your address(es) affected by this application

[Signature]

Signature

11/14/15

Date

Comments:

THIS IS A GRACIOUS, WELL-PROPORTIONED HOME THAT IS APPROPRIATE FOR ITS LOT.
I BELIEVE IT IS VERY IMPORTANT
IN MAINTAINING THE ESTABLISHED,
HISTORIC FEEL OF THE AREA. IT IS A
PRIME EXAMPLE OF OUR CHERISHED
OLD AUSTIN HOUSES-ONE THAT IS BEAUTIFUL WITOUT BEING HUGE

If you use this form to comment, it may be returned to:

City of Austin-Planning & Zoning Department

Steve Sadowsky

P. O. Box 1088

Austin, TX 78767-8810

CHARACTER IS LOST ONE HOUSE
AT A TIME.

PLEASE DON'T TURN OUR AREA INTO AN ENCLAVE FOR THE PRETENTIOUS AND WEALTHY.