Well, they were skeptical of postponing again last month and the NA was there objecting to the postponement, but they did it.
Would you be willing to do whatever res review came back with to make the fence comply (6' average)?
If so, then just withdraw.
If you try to postpone again I think they'll deny it and you're at the same place.

Board of Adjustment applicants:

If your case was postponed to the Board's special called meeting of 12/9, then additional info that you'd like the Board to consider in their advance packet is due to me by end of day 11/23 (due to the holiday).

If your case was postponed to the Board's next regular meeting of 12/14 then additional info that you'd like the Board to consider in their advance packet is due to me by end of day 11/30.

If your case was postponed to the Board's 1/11/16 meeting, then additional info that you'd like the Board to consider in their advance packet is due to be by end of day 12/28.
