Additional Backup Information

The current River City Youth Foundation Social Services Contract has a 37-month term and a contract amount of $350,440. The contract is the result of the 2014 Social Services Request for Application process. The additional one-time funding is an earmarked amount in the Fiscal Year 2015-2016 approved Operating Budget. The amendment includes a one-time $35,000 increase and expands youth services during the 12-month term of October 1, 2015 to September 30, 2016. The services are known as the Dove Springs Youth Services (DSYS) program. DSYS provides a neighborhood-based safe place and learning center for children after school hours and during the summer in the 78744 zip code area.

Services provided include: Prevention/intervention services targeting at-risk youth in Dove Springs 78744; youth leadership and mentoring opportunities; and promoting parent involvement in children’s education and development.
