Additional Backup Information

This project will provide acoustical improvements to mitigate the noise within the Austin Convention Center Level 4 service corridors and will reduce the noise intrusion into adjacent banquet halls.

Project improvements include adding sound deadening panels, acoustical ceiling panels, replacing carpet in selected areas, replacing doors, and adding acoustical hardware to other doors and frames. The work will be performed at night rather than during the Austin Convention Center's normal hours of operation, and will require careful phasing coordinated with Center staff, not only for work hours, but also location of work and on-site storage to minimize conflicts during events.

Due to the potential for discovery of unknown existing building conditions and extensive construction coordination, a 10% contingency in funding has been included to allow for the expeditious processing of any change orders. A contingency is an additional amount of money added to the construction budget to cover any unforeseen construction costs associated with the project.

The current estimated completion date for this project is October 2016. The Convention Center has two large events scheduled for November and December during which no construction can be performed. That period of no work combined with the holidays would delay construction into 2017 should this item be postponed or delayed.

The contract allows 90 calendar days for completion of this project. This project is located within zip code 78701 (District 9). The project will be managed by the Public Works Department.

Piatra, Inc. is located in Austin, Texas.
