

HISTORIC LANDMARK COMMISSION
AUGUST 22, 2016
DEMOLITION AND RELOCATION PERMITS
HDP-2016-0523
4005 BALCONES DRIVE

PROPOSAL

Demolish a ca. 1953 house.

ARCHITECTURE

One-story, wing-and-gable plan, frame house with a partial-width, shed-roofed, independent porch; exterior stone chimney; integral garage. It appears that many of the windows in the house have been recently replaced.

RESEARCH

The house was built around 1953 by Joe and Eleanore Rude, who lived here for the rest of their lives. Joe Rude was the chief radiologist at Brackenridge Hospital. He studied at UTMB in Galveston and served as a radiologist for Bergstrom Air Force Base and the Austin State Hospital. Eleanore Rude was born in Germany but grew up in New York City, where she worked in the radiology department of a hospital – that is where she met and married Joe Rude. The family moved to Austin in 1953.

STAFF COMMENTS

The house is beyond the bounds of any City survey.

STAFF RECOMMENDATION

Encourage rehabilitation and adaptive re-use, but release the permit upon completion of a City of Austin Documentation Package, consisting of photographs of all elevations, a dimensioned sketch plan, and a narrative history, for archiving at the Austin History Center.

Obituary of Joe Rude
Austin American-Statesman, September 9, 1974

Eleonore Wallenfels Rude

Eleonore Wallenfels Rude, 101, went to be with the Lord on December 5, 2007. She was born in Marburg, Germany on April 23, 1906.

Eleonore was one of five children that Elisabeth and Hermann Wallenfels raised in Germany during World War I. Immigrating in 1927 to New York City at nineteen, she learned English by babysitting and working as a seamstress before being admitted to Lenox Hill Hospital Nursing School. She then worked as a Registered Nurse at Kings County Hospital in Brooklyn, New York and met her future husband Dr. Joe C. Rude while taking care of Radiology patients.

They married in the Dutch Re-form Church in Brooklyn, New York. Following their marriage, they moved often following the CCC camps across the nation during the Depression. Then World War II brought about many more unsettling moves including a desperate escape to Italy from Germany and back to America by Eleonore and two young children in 1939. The young family finally settled in Austin, Texas in 1953 after stops in North Carolina, Oklahoma, Mississippi and Galveston, Texas. She lived in Austin, where she was a member of Shepherd of the Hills Lutheran Church, until death reunited her with her beloved husband Joe who passed away in 1974.

Eleonore Wallenfels Rude is survived by her daughter Eleanor Kreneck and her husband, Lynwood, of Lubbock, Texas; her son Franklin Rude, M.D., and his wife, Phillis, of Nacogdoches, Texas; her daughter Elizabeth Buell and her husband, Walter, M.D., of Austin, Texas; and her son Joe C. Rude III, M.D., and his wife Carolyn, of Atlanta, Georgia. Eleonore also was survived by 9 grandchildren, 12 great-grandchildren, and numerous nieces, nephews, other relatives, and many friends.

The family will receive friends on Saturday, December 8, 2007 at Weed-Corley-Fish Funeral Home from 4:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. with a Funeral Service following at 6:00 p.m. Graveside Services will be held at 11:00 a.m., Monday, December 10, 2007 at Austin Memorial Park on Hancock, (512) 453-2320.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations be made to American Heart Association or Shepherd of the Hills Lutheran Church of Austin.
