DEMOLITION AND RELOCATION PERMITS
HDP-2016-0944
907 W. JOHANNA STREET

PROPOSAL

Demolish a ca. 1944 house.

ARCHITECTURE

One-story, rectangular-plan, side-gabled frame house with a partial-width front-gabled independent porch on plain, square wood posts; modern metal-framed replacement windows; synthetic siding.

RESEARCH

The house appears to have been built in 1944 by a Mrs. Asa Belvin. The first occupant of the house was a renter, Marlin F. Cotton, who is not listed in the alphabetical section of the 1947 city directory. There was then a series of short-term owners in the late 1940s and early 1950s, including a worker at the Tips Engine Works and a salesman. From the mid-1950s through the mid-1960s, the house was a rental property, with periods of vacancy.

Around 1966, the house was purchased by Gregorio Guerrero and his daughter, Angelina, who lived here for the rest of their lives. Gregorio Guerrero was retired while he lived in this house; his daughter Angelina worked as a secretary, first for the Hispanic-American Institute at the UT campus, then for the Legal Aid Society of Central Texas, and later for the State Attorney General's Office. She passed away in 2008.

STAFF COMMENTS

The house is not listed in any City survey to date.

STAFF RECOMMENDATION

Encourage rehabilitation and adaptive re-use, then relocation over demolition, but release the permit upon completion of a City of Austin Documentation Package, consisting of photographs of all elevations, a dimensioned sketch plan, and a narrative history, for archiving at the Austin History Center. The house has neither the architectural nor the historical significance to warrant individual designation as a historic landmark.
