

The Greater Austin Black Chamber of Commerce Hosts 2ND Food Truck Friday Cook Off

Tam Hawkins
President & CEO
tam.hawkins@austinbcc.org
512-459-1181

Event Date: May 12, 2017

The Greater Austin Black Chamber of Commerce will host a Food Truck Friday Cook Off on Friday, May 12, 2017 to promote mobile foodpreneurs in the Greater Austin region. Unique food vendors will roll onto grounds next to the African American Cultural Heritage Facility (912 E. 11th St) and share a select tasters menu from 11:00am to 6:00pm. All food vendors will enter a competition but, only one will be selected by a panel of judges in the East Austin corridor and named as the 2017 GABC Food Truck Friday Champion. Attendees will have the opportunity to nominate their favorite food truck to win the 2017 Taster's Choice Award.

Along with speciality foods and beverages, local Austin artists will display artwork in the Dedrick-Hamilton Visitor Resource Center and the public will have an opportunity to tour the African American Cultural Heritage Facility.

Time Needed:

7:00am - food vendors arrive
11:00am - competition starts
12:00pm - awards announced
1:00pm - 6:00pm - food vendors continue selling
6:00pm - close event/clean up
6:30-7:00pm - food trucks leave

Includes:

- 4 to 5 food trucks in lot (197215)
- Local radio promoter (KAZI)
- Art exhibition in Dedrick-Hamilton House

Admission is free for attendees and registration is available via online registration. Food vendors can register for FREE at www.austinbcc.org.

About: The Greater Austin Black Chamber of Commerce (GABC) promotes the development of AfricanAmerican businesses and the expansion of the Greater Austin business community by providing resources, technical assistance, and leadership on policy issues that enhance economic growth and by promoting convention and tourism.