

Austin Community Transgender Working Group

Sunday, January 21, 2018 at 2:30 PM - 4:30 PM

Austin History Center, Austin Public Library, 810 Guadalupe St, Austin, Texas 78701

Initial organizing meeting of a working group of transgender and gender non-binary Austinites, LGBTQiA+ allies, and interested citizens. This working group is being created to help inform the City of Austin LGBTQ Quality of Life Advisory Commission as they develop strategic priorities in 2018.

This is a grass roots group which encourages participation from across our community. The initial goal is simple:

"To listen and learn and share ideas on how we can make Austin a better place to live for all transgender and gender non-binary people. The group will continue to meet through 2018 to identify and help implement actionable goals for our community."

The Austin History Center David Earl Holt Photo Gallery/Reception Room is fully accessible. It is located at 8th and Guadalupe Street in downtown Austin, with good Capital Metro access and, since the meeting is on Sunday, free street parking nearby. Please do not hesitate to reach out in advance of the meeting with any requests for additional accommodations.
