Amendments to Rules of Procedures

Public Hearing testimony shall be conducted without interruption from commissioners.

After closing of the Public Hearing, the commission will conduct a question and answer portion in the following manner:

Each commissioner will have (2) two turns to ask questions. A commissioner may not seek a second turn as long as any member desiring to ask questions has not had the initial opportunity to do so. Each turn shall not exceed 10 min per commissioner. Questions must be germane to the requested commission action posted on the agenda.

After conducting the question and answer portion, the chair will put the question before the commission and request a motion.

Each member is granted (2) two turns to speak on the motion. A commissioner may not seek a second turn as long as any member desiring to speak on the motion has not had the initial opportunity to do so. Debate and discussion are limited to the motion under consideration.

If a substitute motion is made for consideration, each member is granted (2) two turns to speak on the substitute motion. A commissioner may not seek a second turn as long as any member desiring to speak on the substitute motion has not had the initial opportunity to do so. Debate and discussion are limited to the substitute motion under consideration.
