

The Office of the Police Monitor is responsible for oversight of the Austin Police Department.

WE ARE A RESOURCE TO THE COMMUNITY TO:

Address questions and concerns about the Austin Police Department (APD), including complaints of misconduct by an Austin police officer

Promote mutual respect between law enforcement and the community

Engage the community through educational forums

Make policy recommendations to improve the APD and reduce incidents of police misconduct

If you have a question, we encourage you to call us.
We are here to help you.

Informational brochures are available in English, Spanish, Mandarin, Thai and Vietnamese.
