

Item #55

MPT Garza

While the acquisition of Lions has long been open space that the city has negotiated to purchase, there are citywide needs and likely other projects that could benefit from credit received as a result of this MOU. The city shall actively seek other opportunities to seek projects that align with the council's priorities.