

Mayor

"The priority is to provide dedicated pathways for transit on the orange and blue lines with the goal of not eliminating any existing through travel lanes. In most places, this can be accommodated at grade within the existing right-of-way. In other limited areas, however, the community will need to weigh available options, including acquiring additional right of way, going above or below ground, or some other accommodation."