

Late Backup

In response to Question 2, the City Council selects Option C and provides the following additional direction:

The majority of new housing capacity should be within ½ mile of transit priority networks as identified by the Austin Strategic Mobility Plan.