Council Committee, Boards and Commission Action:

May 13, 2019 - Not recommended by the Electric Utility Commission on an 4-4 vote, with Commissioner Boyle, Funkhouser, Osborne and Tuttle voting against, Commissioner Weldon off the dais and Commissioners Hadden and Stone absent.

Additional Backup Information:

The contract will provide ergonomic assessments and recommendations for improvement to Austin Energy's ergonomic program. The contractor will provide written assessments of the current program, provide recommendations based on findings, and identify high-risk job tasks which require more aggressive management, perform one-on-one assessments available to employees at 24 locations, provide training classes, recommendations for communications with staff, and provide ongoing ergonomic consulting services. With an improved ergonomic program in place, the goal is to reduce employee injuries in the field as well as in an office environment.

This is a new contract. An evaluation team with expertise in this area evaluated the offers and scored AHW Consulting LLC, D/B/A Healthworks Ergonomics as the best evaluated responsive offeror to provide these services based on concept and solution, price, work plan, experience and personnel, local business presence, and service-disabled veteran business enterprise.
