A. Austin Police Department's SAFE PLACE program: Assistant Chief Troy Gay, Sgt. Michael Grumrine, LGBT Liaison Christian Mendoza, Refugee & Immigrant Liaison Sadot Azzua update on program and processing procedures

- APD staff: Lt. Christine Chomout, Victims Services Mgr. Kachina Clark, and Sadot Azzua presented update on UVisa applications
- Drop in number of UVisa applications submitted
- Why? APD assumes that applications are more detailed and time consuming
- Reasons for denial for refusal to cooperate can include: no call back, no answer at home
- Outreach efforts include PSA's, pamphlets, monthly visit to Mexican consulate by Immigrant Liaison -Sadot Azzua and other bi-lingual staff
- We requested disaggregated and date. This is our second request.

- SAFE PLACE program presentation. Christian shared the goal to increase public trust in law enforcement and feeling of safety in the LGBTQ community. Created in 2015 by the Seattle PD to address low reporting of anti-LGBTQ+ crimes. 2019: Austin PD became the first police agency in Texas to implement the program. Approximately 100 local businesses will be participating.
