Thanks, Andrew. I understand. I only wanted to reiterate the first point in the neutral letter we provided, which was that the owner claimed intent to build affordable housing but was unwilling to commit to that via Restrictive Covenant. I wanted to urge Planning Commission to push back on that and explore whatever legal mechanisms are available to attach affordability to their approval.

Thanks,

Unfortunately the time to register has expired. I'm happy to pass along written correspondence to the Commission.

Thank you,
