

SHAPE  Austin's
FUTURE

RedistrictATX.org

Presented by City Auditor Corrie Stokes
August 2020

What is Redistricting?

- A process for residents to redraw council district boundaries every 10 years
- Austin residents will redraw the boundaries in 2021
- New boundaries will go in effect for the November 2022 election

Community participation

There are two opportunities for Austin residents to be part of redistricting.

1

Applicant Review Panel

The Panel will help select the commissioners.

Three Certified Public Accountants will serve on the Panel.

2

Independent Citizens Redistricting Commission

The Commission will draw the boundaries of Austin's council districts.

How the process works

Three CPA's will be randomly selected for the Applicant Review Panel

The Panel will help select members for the Independent Citizen Redistricting Commission

Commissioners will draw the new council districts

Key dates

Date	Event
June 1, 2020	Applications for Commission and Panel opened
Sept 1	Application period for Panel closes
Sept 30	Application period for Commission closes
Oct 1	City Auditor randomly selects 3 applicants for Panel
Nov – Jan 15, 2021	Panel selects the 60 most qualified Commission applicants
Jan 15-Jan 22	Each Council Member can strike one application from the qualified pool
Jan 23	City Auditor randomly selects 8 Commissioners from the qualified pool
Jan 24 – Feb 28	Commissioners choose 6 more applicants from the qualified pool
March 1 – Nov 1	14 selected Commissioners draw districts to go in effect for the 2022 election

Website – RedistrictATX.org

It is one of the most important things you can do in your life. It affects the next ten years of the entire city.

RYAN RAFOLS, CURRENT COMMISSION MEMBER

About

Panel

Commission

Timeline

Why This Matters

Events

FAQ

About Redistricting

Austin has 10 city council members and a mayor. The mayor is elected by residents citywide and each council member is elected by residents of a geographic district within the city.

APPLY FOR THE COMMISSION

APPLY FOR THE PANEL

Outreach in Multiple Languages

Austin residents will redraw the council district boundaries.

Be part of the process and shape Austin's future.

奥斯汀的居民将重新划定市议会选区的边界。

参与这个过程，塑造奥斯汀的未来。

Cư dân Austin sẽ thiết lập lại ranh giới các quận hội đồng.

Trở thành một phần của quá trình này và định hình tương lai của Austin.

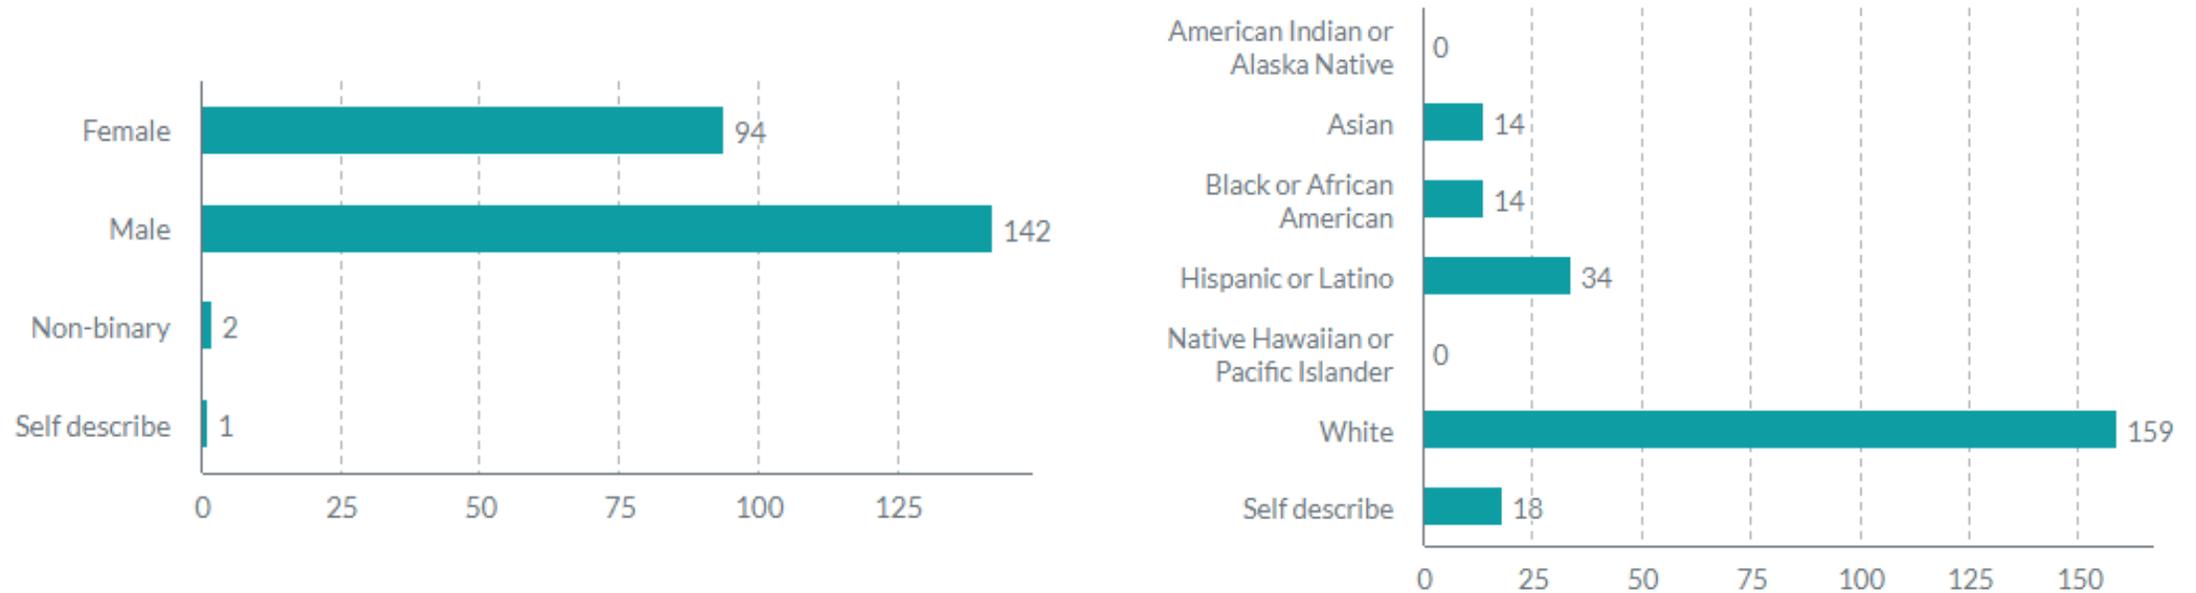

Los residentes de Austin van a redibujar los límites de los distritos municipales.

Participe en el proceso y profile el futuro de Austin.

Current Commission Applicants

As of August 14, 2020

Total Applications Received: 239

The complete demographic breakdown can be found on redistrictatx.org

SHAPE  Austin's
FUTURE

RedistrictATX.org