Hello Angela,

My name is James Watson and I live at 2508 Park View Dr, Austin, TX 78757. I've attached below signed forms declaring my approval of two demolition permit requests for homes on my street. The homes are 2505 Park View Drive and 2507 Park View Drive. The only actual things of interest about the homes in our Air Condition Village neighborhood were the experimental AC units used in each home. None of those air conditioners exist any more as they have all been replaced by now. Other than those now non-existing ACs, there is nothing architecturally interesting about any of the homes on our street that would merit them being historically worthy of preservation. Please feel free to reach out to me anytime if you need anything further from me in this regard.

Thanks so much!!
