Bill I 100% share your concern about the demolitions, all in a row, of the houses on Funston in Bryker Woods. Has the city addressed this trend in historic neighborhoods? Once they're gone they're gone for good.

Best,
Greg

As a resident on the 3200 block of Funston St. I am concerned regarding these permits. There are three permits to demolish houses on the East side of the 3200 block of Funston!! This drastic tear down of older homes is not in keeping with the Old West Austin Historic District, Bryker Woods, or Funston St. This block has deed restrictions to single-story homes, and all three of the newer homes are two-story+.
