Hi Scott,

My name is Daniel Sullivan, and I'm a resident of the East Congress neighborhood in South Austin (812 Sheraton Ave).

I'm writing to you today to urge the city to reject the developer's appeal to forego the requirement for a public easement leading to the Williamson Creek Greenbelt. The requirement for a public easement is hardly onerous, and would ensure that this part of the city progresses in its development towards being more vibrant and pedestrian friendly.

Thanks for your time. I hope you take this into consideration.

Best,
Daniel Sullivan

Dear Mr. Grantham,

Our neighborhood is being overdeveloped and we fear the infrastructure can not bear all this. We need all the greenspace/parkland we are entitled to. We are writing to object to giving an exemption for case #SP-2019-0600C. The developer is trying to make use of a loophole which would close off the trail to all but the condo development, making a continuous greenbelt park impossible. Please help save our neighborhood!

*** External Email - Exercise Caution ***

Hello Scott,

I am writing in protest to the new build of condos blocking the Williamson Creek Greenbelt, SP-2019-0600C. I live within walking distance to the greenbelt and would like to be able to use the trail the city is developing.

The developers of "The Bend" at 4802 S Congress, want to build 125 condos on a former used car lot. Their 5.3 acre lot includes Williamson Creek frontage, in an area that the City are trying to open up as a creekside trail. The development code requires high density developments like this to dedicate part of their land for parks use, in this case just over 2 acres.

That shouldn't be a problem, as 1.8 acres of the site are in the floodplain, and so can't be used for anything else. However this parkland is useless without public access from Congress Avenue, and the developers are reluctant to grant that, fearing liability issues if traffic entering the development collides with visitors. The problem can be seen at <http://thebendaustin.com> where the site plan shows the building (in orange) crammed into the front part of the site, leaving just enough space for an access driveway. The gap between driveway and southern boundary leaves little room for a sidewalk. Without public access the dedicated parkland is useless. The Developer is trying to appeal to the Planning Commision, with a hearing set for February 9th at 6pm. Case# SP-2019-0600C. We need to insist on a public access easement.

The developers have been trying to sell units since last fall, advertising them as "under construction", when they haven't even got a site plan approved as of yet. Please consider the neighbors to this space when making your decision.

Thank you.

*** External Email - Exercise Caution ***

It's come to my attention that the development at 4802 Congress is wanting an exemption from allowing park land. I strongly oppose this and cannot imagine that this would be favorable to the City of Austin. Taking away the parkland will prohibit access to walking trails as well as not allowing a neighborhood access to the greenbelt. The lack of green space for wildlife impacts them as well.

I think it's time that developers need to conform to what residents want.

Dear Planning Commissioners and Council Members,

Community Powered Workshop (CPW) is an Austin-based non-profit organization that works alongside communities who have not yet been heard to create powerful and equitable places, and we do this through collaborative planning, community-driven research and social impact design. This letter is in regards to the Wilder site/The Bend project (SP-2019-0600C Site Plan Appeal, 4802 S Congress Ave.).

There are nearly 58 acres of parkland and 17 acres of residential floodplain buyout properties between Menchaca Road and Congress Avenue, creating almost two miles of connected green space along Central Williamson Creek. In 2019 CPW was approached by local community leaders to support a process that would allow neighbors of the area to re-imagine this green space as a resilient, healthy and connected space. Since then we have been building relationships and working alongside Southwood and Heartwood neighborhoods through an engaged process that continues today and has grown to include the development of a community-led Vision Plan.

For this Vision Planning process, CPW facilitated the convening of an 8-member Community Working Group from across the creek to bring local voices and perspectives to the table, and a City Working Group of City of Austin staff, including the Watershed Protection Department and Parks and Recreation Department. After securing grant funding from the St. David's Foundation and with additional support through The Nature Conservancy, the project was able to support the time and expertise of residents participating in the working group, develop and distribute engagement materials, and contract local landscape architect team, Asakura Robinson to develop the Vision Plan.

As we have seen throughout the Central Williamson Creek Greenway Vision Plan, the community has overwhelmingly expressed a priority for access and connectivity throughout the neighborhood, and see the greenway as a critical component for this. Since there is no parkland dedicated on this tract yet, we have not included it in the Vision Plan in its current form, although we do see this tract as a potential critical component of green space access, connectivity and health for the neighborhood and overall trail system. Furthermore, according to the Healthy Parks Plan for Travis, Bastrop and Caldwell Counties, the area is in high need of additional parkland. The plan identifies the vast majority of areas around Central Williamson Creek as very high priority areas, with a few segments also considered high priority. The adjacent neighborhoods could benefit from greater access to healthy park space. The Vision Plan works to activate this space and reclaim it as a healthy community resource.

The Vision Plan was shaped by community input shared through audio stories, an interactive Social Pinpoint map, and ideas for the greenway were shared and voted on with 'Creek Idea Cards.' Learn more about the engagement activities and Vision Plan by visiting www.centralwilliamsoncreek.org. Please do not hesitate to reach out to Nicole Joslin, Executive Director, at nicole@cp-workshop.org, if you have any questions.

Sincerely,
