Mission

Waterloo Greenway Conservancy creates and maintains an extraordinary urban park system and a restored Waller Creek, in partnership with the City of Austin, for the benefit of all. The Conservancy renews the natural environment, promotes play, health and wellness, economic vitality and mobility, and engages the community through outreach, education, cultural events, and the arts.

New Connectivity

PARKS

1928: plan forced African and Mexican Americans to move to certain neighborhoods in order to access amenities

1934: Austin redlined, preventing those living in East Austin and other neighborhoods from securing mortgages

1959-1961: Austin Development Plan zoned East Austin industrial

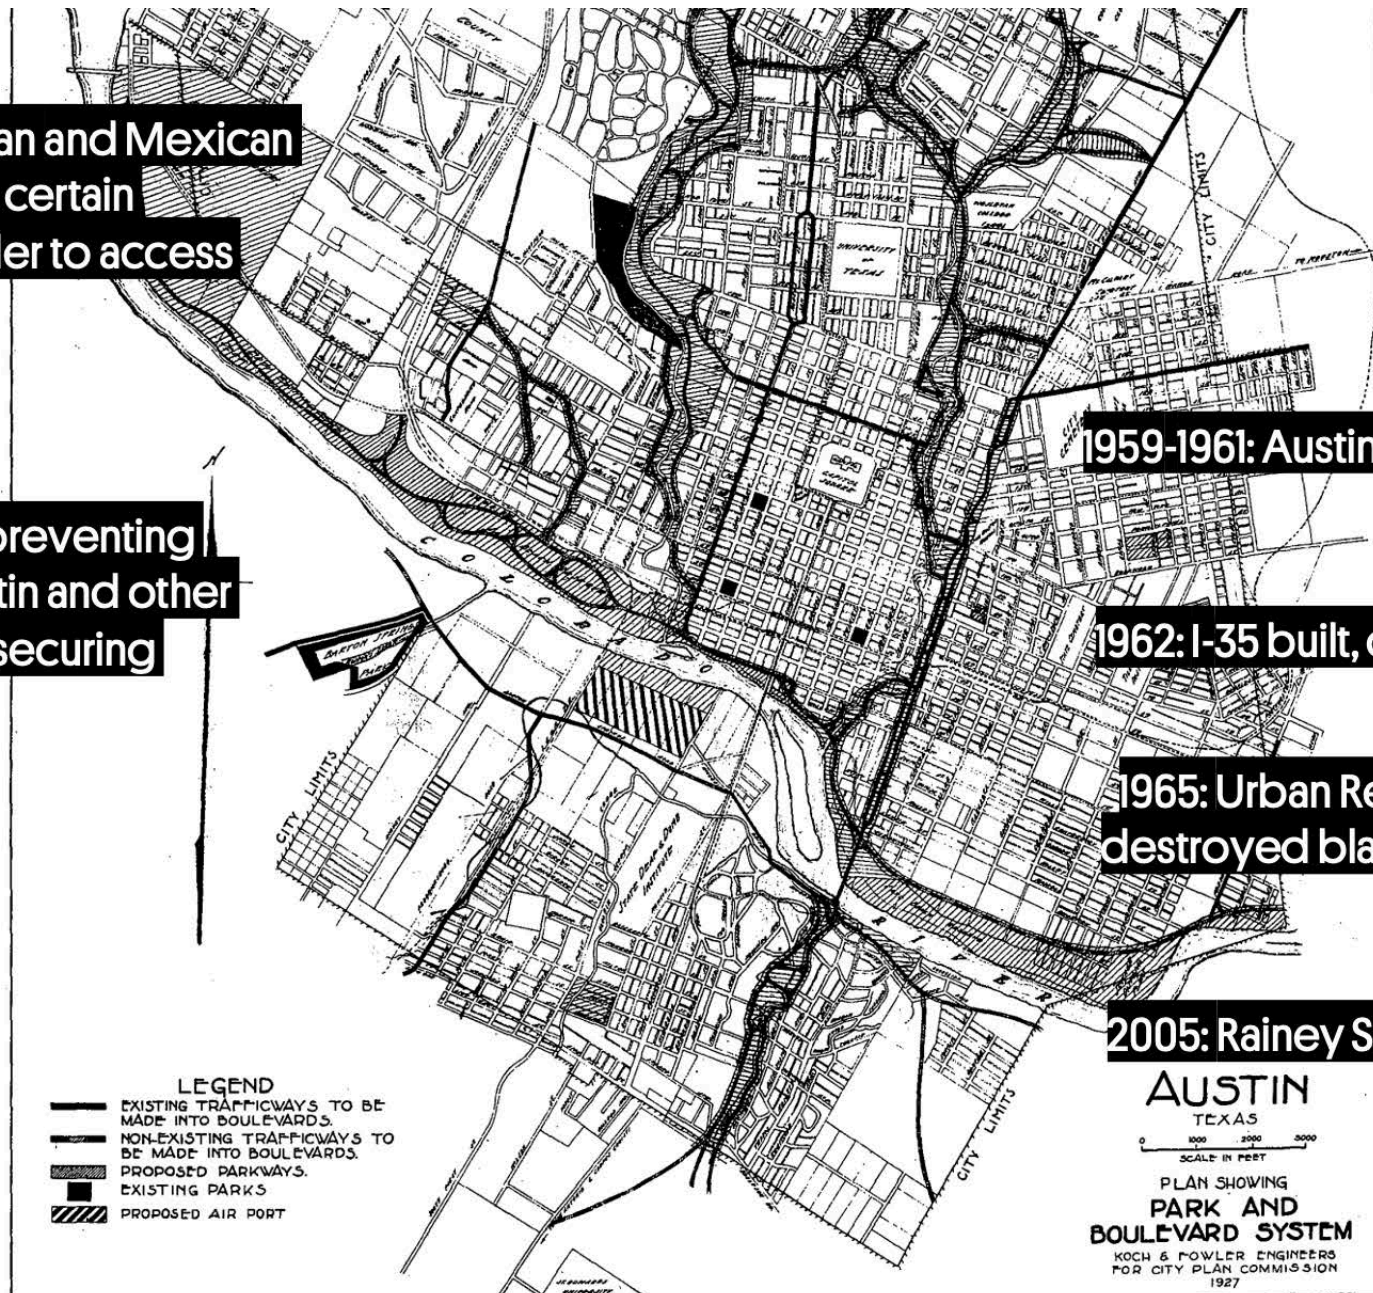

1962: I-35 built, creating East / West barrier

1965: Urban Renewal - Brackenridge Plan destroyed black business community on Red River

2005: Rainey Street rezoned to business, forcing Latino families out
