

Austin Parks Attract Tourists

The screenshot shows a web browser window displaying the Austin Texas website. The header features the 'Austin - LIVE MUSIC CAPITAL OF THE WORLD' logo, navigation links for 'VISIT' and 'MEET', a temperature display of 73°, a language dropdown set to 'ENGLISH', and a search bar. Below the header is a large image of a live music performance on a stage with a large crowd in the foreground. To the right of the image is a navigation menu with links: TRAVEL TRADE, SPORTS COMMISSION, FILM COMMISSION, MUSIC OFFICE, and PRESS. Below the image is a 'VISIT' section with a list of links: MUSIC SCENE, STAY, EVENTS CALENDAR, PLAN YOUR TRIP, ENTERTAINMENT DISTRICTS, and THINGS TO DO. To the right of this list is a 'MAKE AUSTIN' section with a paragraph of text. A red-bordered box on the right side of the page contains the text 'Get Outside!' followed by a paragraph and a list of outdoor activities.

9 PLACES TO EXPERIENCE ZILKER PARK

Published: 2/24/2017

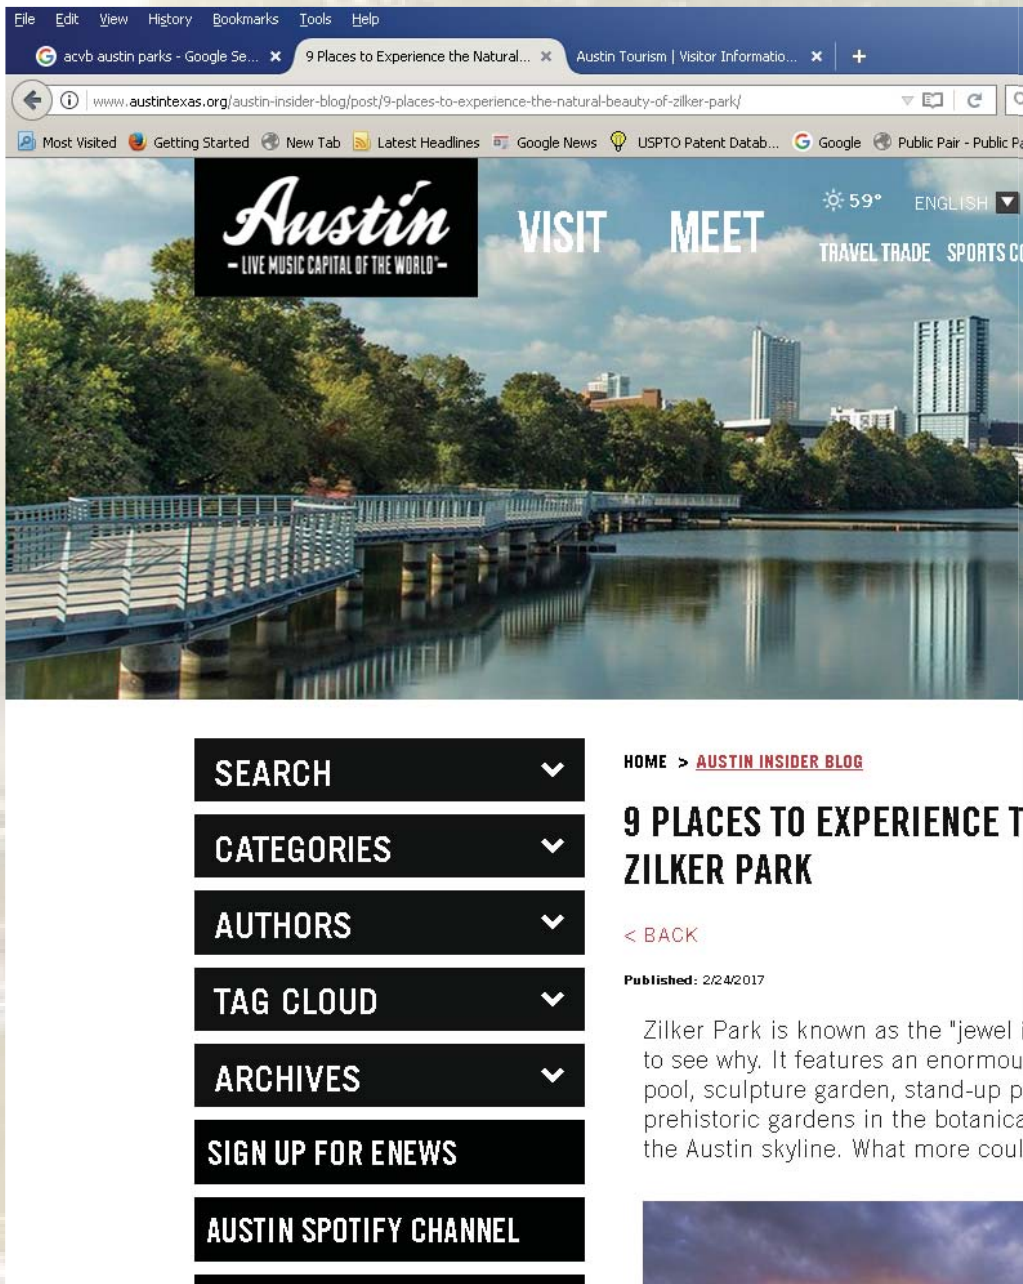

Zilker Park is known as the "jewel of the city" to see why. It features an enormous, natural spring-fed swimming pool, sculpture garden, stand-up paddle boarding, dinosaurs (at the prehistoric gardens in the botanical garden), and unbeatable views of the Austin skyline. What more could you want?

Barton Springs Pool is always at or near the top lists of things to do in Austin. Locals and visitors hang out all summer long to socialize, swim, relax and most importantly, cool off from the hot Texas sun. The man-made pool is a three acre controlled reservoir, fed by a natural spring that keeps the water at a cool 68 degrees temperature. This is the best place in Austin to stay cool through the hot summers.

Zilker Park is known as the "jewel in the heart of Austin," and it's easy to see why. It features an enormous, natural spring-fed swimming pool, sculpture garden, stand-up paddle boarding, dinosaurs (at the prehistoric gardens in the botanical garden), and unbeatable views of the Austin skyline. What more could you want?
