

The image features a scenic view of a river with a city skyline in the background. The sky is blue with scattered white clouds. The river is calm, reflecting the sky and the buildings. Several people are seen kayaking and paddleboarding on the water. The foreground is framed by green trees on both sides. The logo for the Austin Neighborhoods Council (ANC) is prominently displayed in the center. The logo consists of the letters 'ANC' in a bold, green, sans-serif font. Below the letters, the full name 'Austin Neighborhoods Council' is written in a smaller, green, sans-serif font.

ANC
Austin Neighborhoods Council

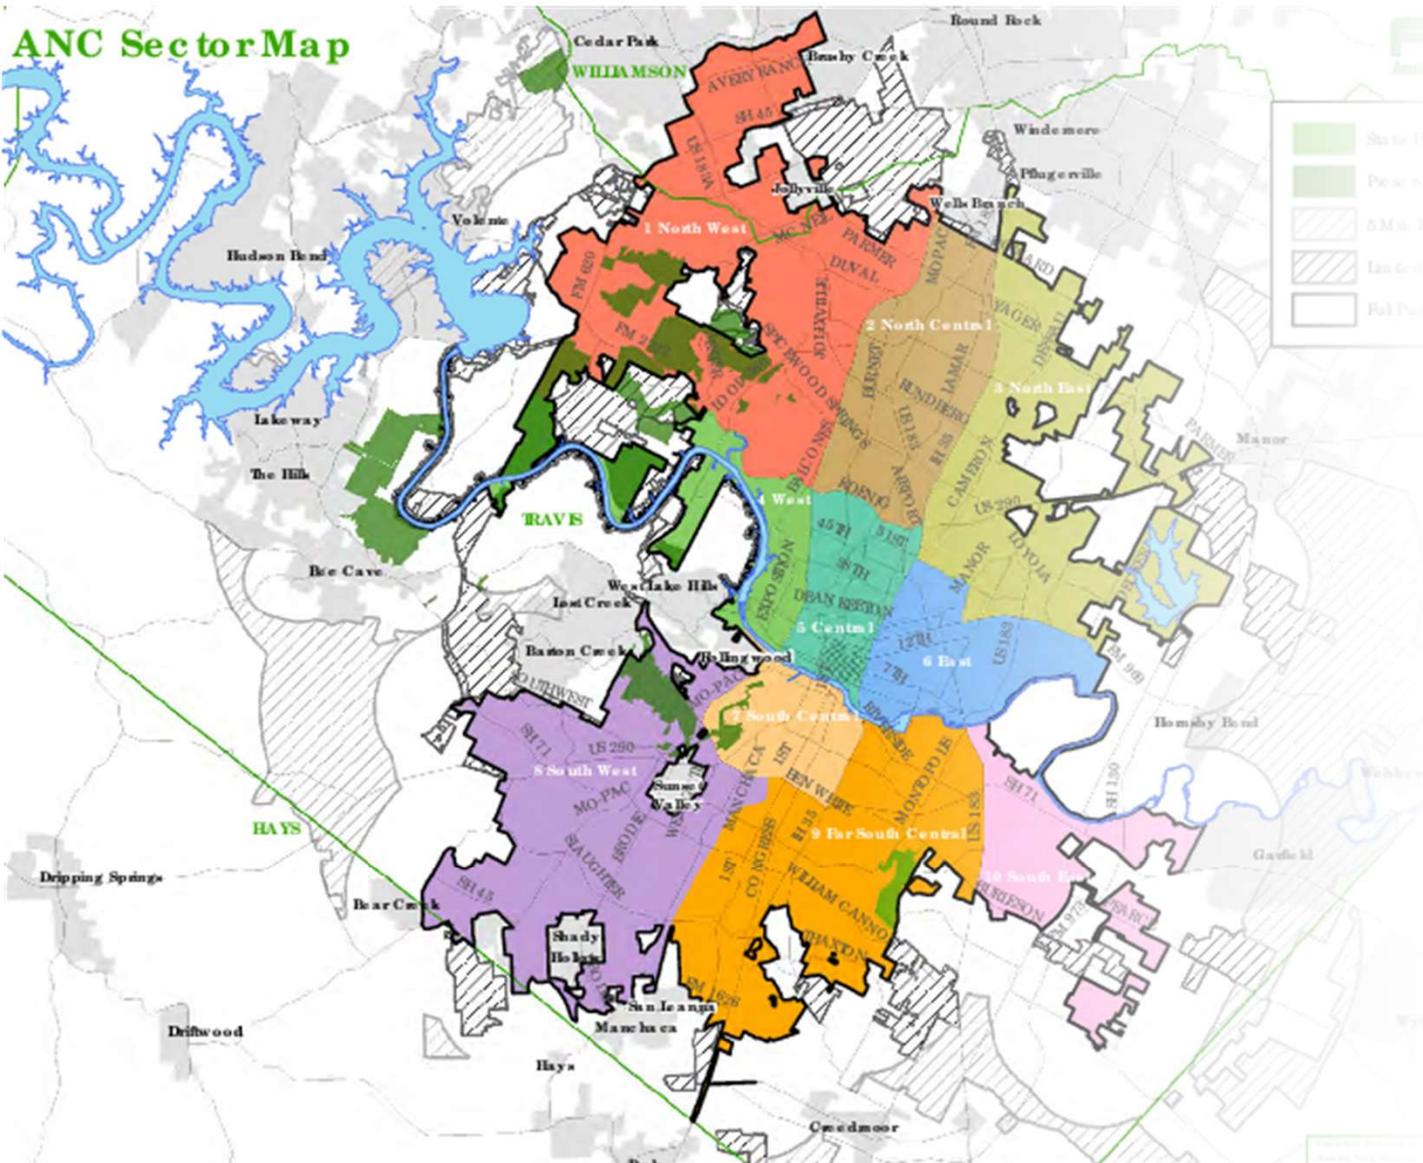

Est. 1973
Strength Through Unity

“We do for neighborhoods what the Chamber of Commerce does for business.” –Joan Bartz 1973

- Community Building
- Advocacy
- Civic Education
- Policy Education
- Land Use Education
- Connecting Council with Neighbors
- Environmental Justice
- Equity

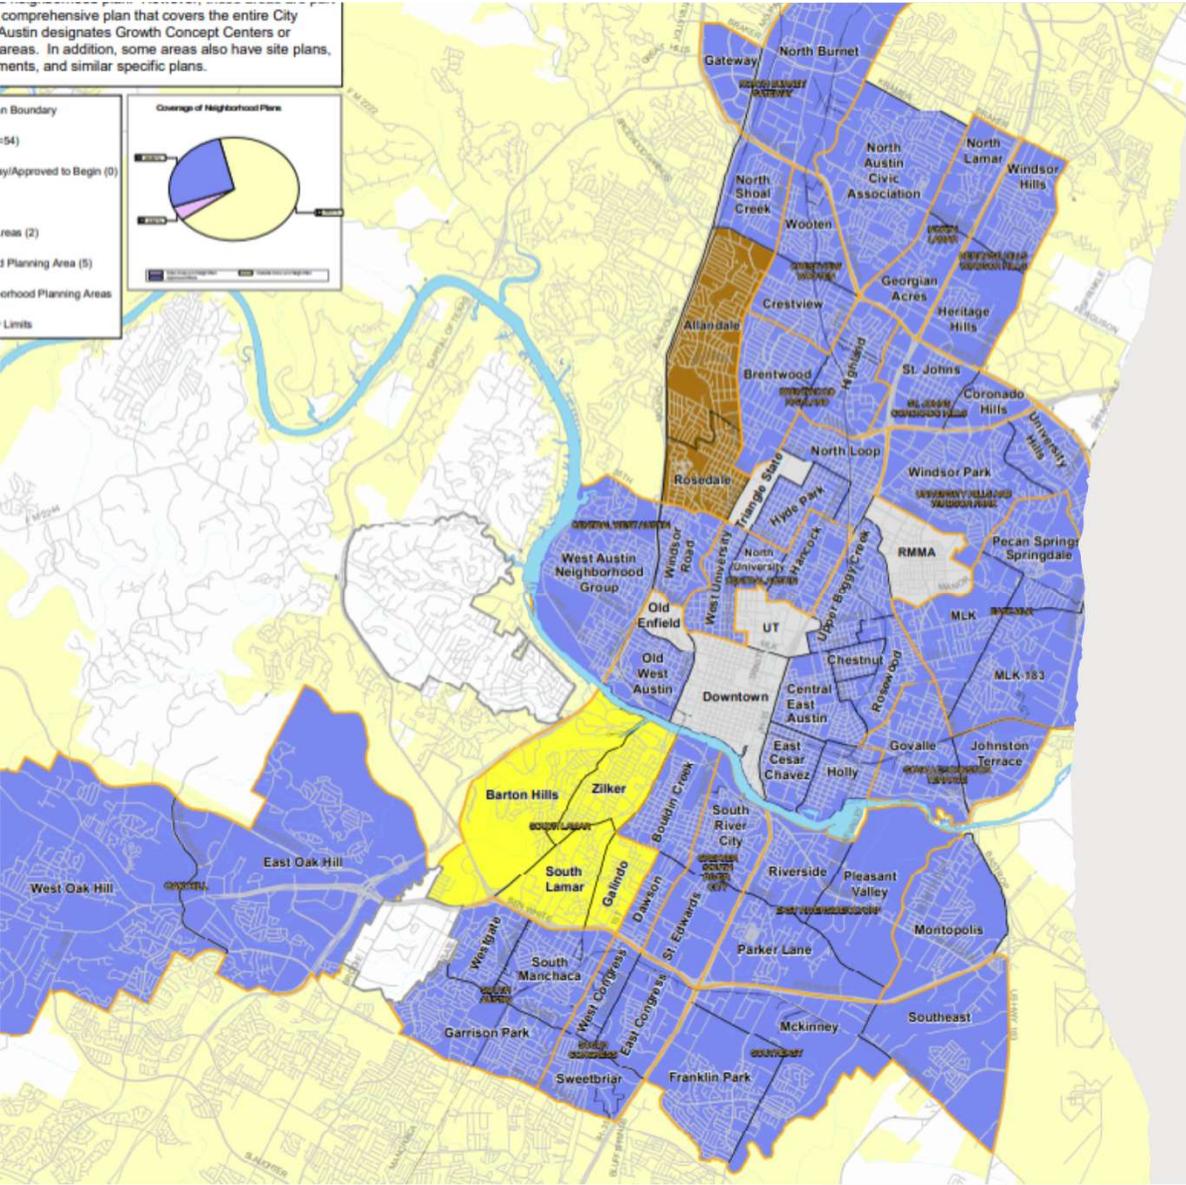

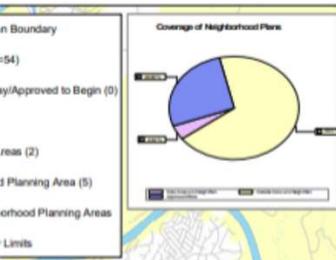

ANC Sector Map

ANC Executive Committee

Justin Irving	President
Barbara McArthur	Vice-President 1
Mary Ingle	Vice-President 2
Joyce Basciano	Vice-President 3
Chip Harris	Secretary
TBD	Co-Secretary
Sheryl Cheatham	Treasurer
Alexandria Anderson	Communications Coordinator
Marc Duchon	Sector 1 Representative
Randy Ortega	Sector 2 Representative
Seth Fowler	Sector 3 Representative
Jim Lear	Sector 4 Representative
Megan Meisenbach	Sector 5 Representative
Daniel Llanes	Sector 6 Representative
Julie Woods	Sector 7 Representative
Jeff Bowen	Sector 8 Representative
Andy Anderson	Sector 9 Representative
TBD	Sector 10 Representative
Patricia King	Immediate Past President

comprehensive plan that covers the entire City of Austin designates Growth Concept Centers or areas. In addition, some areas also have site plans, elements, and similar specific plans.

Neighborhood Planning Areas

- Each area consists of many neighborhoods
- Only represent neighborhoods in the city “core”.
- Quasi governmental

• http://www.austintexas.gov/sites/default/files/files/Planning/Neighborhood_Planning/npstatus_tab_9-19-18.pdf

ANC and 10-1

“The Austin Neighborhoods Council also supported the 10-1 plan. Past president Steve Aleman says that he looks forward to a more even representation across the entire city. “Last year when I was president, driving from one far end of town to the other for neighborhood meetings,” Aleman recalled, “I was struck by how diverse the city is. ... It personally hit home how important this was to ensure that all the neighborhoods have a voice.” “

-Austin Chronicle FRI., FEB. 1, 2013

Do neighborhood associations have their own boundary maps? If so, could those be shared with the commissioners?

- <https://www.austintexas.gov/department/community-registry>