One-story brick Tudor Revival house with cross-gabled roof, arched offset doorway, paired 1:1 windows with decorative screens, and concrete front stoop enclosed by metal railing.

RESEARCH

The house at 1400 Mohle Drive was built in 1939 for Elizabeth and Benjamin Tobin. The Tobins owned a barber and beauty shop, where they both worked; Benjamin Tobin ran the barbershop and Elizabeth Tobin operated the beauty salon. The shop was located first at 1138 San Jacinto, then at 113 East 21st Street. The Tobins occupied the home until at least 1973.

 - d. Community value. The property does not possess a unique location, physical characteristic, or significant feature that contributes to the character, image, or cultural identity of the city, the neighborhood, or a particular demographic group.
 - e. Landscape feature. The property is not a significant natural or designed landscape with artistic, aesthetic, cultural, or historical value to the city.

STAFF RECOMMENDATION

FIGHTERS for FREEDOM☆☆☆

By MARGARET MAYER

First Lt. Carl Hobbs, infantry officer, has returned to duty following his second injury received in action in France. His wife, who lives at 3501 Govalle, recently received a Purple Heart medal awarded him for his first injury.

Landing with the first troops in France on D-Day, Lt. Hobbs was wounded two days later, June 8, hit by shrapnel from a 20 mm shell in the left shoulder and left ear. He was evacuated to a hospital in England, returning to duty June 28.

He was injured the second time on Aug. 1, and recovering from a shotgun wound in his leg, returned to duty Aug. 20.

Lt. Hobbs, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Hobbs, 3602 Webberville road, worked at the Austin post office before entering the army in February, 1942. He was commissioned as infantry officer at Fort Benning, Ga., in August, 1942.

Walter M. Maurer, Jr., 23, radio man third class, is in his second year of sea duty on a seaplane tender in the Pacific. Son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Maurer, 610 Theresa, he worked in the press room of The American-Statesman before joining the navy Dec. 20, 1941. He left the States for sea duty in July, 1943.

T-Sgt. James A. Tobin is serving in a field hospital somewhere in France. He was a student at the University of Texas before he entered the army with the Texas National Guard in 1940. His brother, Corp. Nolan P. Tobin, enlisted in the army air corps in 1942 and is stationed at Bergstrom field. Corp. Tobin finished Austin high school in June, 1942. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Tobin, 1400 Mohle drive.

A letter to Mrs. C. M. McArthur of Route 2 from her son's commanding officer, 1st Lt. Roger F. Seasholtz, told of the circumstances of Sgt. Cecil M. McArthur's death July 22 with the marine corps on Saipan.

"Your son was platoon sergeant and acting platoon leader in the recent engagement with the enemy on Saipan island. He had assembled his tanks behind the lines and had started to dismount when he noticed some enemy snipers ready to fire on other tank personnel. As they appeared, 'Mac' immediately engaged them in a fire fight, thus attracting the attention of his other men enabling them to seek the protection of their tanks. This courageous act saved the lives of many. It is reassuring to know that your son met his death without fear or suffering."

Mrs. McArthur also received a letter from Col. D. O. Orr, marine corps, informing her that her son had been awarded posthumously the Purple Heart. Sgt. McArthur was buried on Saipan island.

1st Col. Carl E. Green, anti-aircraft officer with the army coast artillery, has been awarded the Bronze Star medal "for meritorious service in connection with military operations against the enemy from June 17 to July 10 on Saipan."

Col. Green is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Ledbetter, 910 Baylor. Mrs. Green and their son, Carl Jr., are living with her mother, Mrs. Claude de Van Watts, 1112 West Ninth.
