WHAT IS THE ENR COST INDEX?

Engineering News Record

- CCI – Construction Cost Index
- BCI – Building Cost Index

Prices a “basket of goods” including labor, concrete, steel, and lumber

Similar to Consumer Price Index (CPI) for measuring inflation across the economy

Measured on a monthly basis, 20 individual cities used to create an “industry average”. Unless in the specific market of the individual city, industry average is most accurate

INFLATION IS REAL

WHAT CAN THE CITY DO?

As an individual actor in the construction economy, there isn't much the City can do about industry-wide inflation:

- Delay construction projects until inflation corrects
 - Deadlines on implementation of bond projects “Contract with the Voters”
- Lock in pricing via contracts/bid guarantee
- Update project budgets on a regular basis
- Update Engineer's Estimates as bid time approaches and ensure inflation costs are included.
