Mission Statement

The mission of the Office of Police Oversight (OPO) is to provide impartial oversight of the Austin Police Department's conduct, practices, and policies to enhance accountability, inform the public to increase transparency and create sustainable partnerships throughout the community.

Three Main Focus Areas

2018-2019 Report findings relevant to BIPOC communities

Joint Report: Analysis of APD's 2019 Racial Profiling Data

- Black/African American drivers are the most overrepresented group in motor vehicle stops, making up approximately 8% of the Austin population, 14% of the motor vehicle stops, 25% of searches, and 25% of the arrests, and were the only demographic to receive more high discretion than low discretion searches
- The Black/African American driving population had two times more motor vehicle stops per driving population than the White/Caucasian driving population. White/Caucasians and Asians received a higher percentage of warnings/field observations at 63% and 64%, respectively
- Black/African Americans were three times more likely to be searched and were approximately three times more likely to be arrested than White/Caucasians
- Hispanic/Latino drivers make up 34% of motor vehicle stops and 43% of arrests resulting from stops, but make up 31% of Austin's adult population
- Hispanic/Latinos received the highest percentage of citations at 44%

2018 Officer-Involved Shooting Report

- Austin officer-involved shootings in 2018 showed that 7 out of 12 incidents involved Latinx individuals.
- Most individuals involved in the 2018 incidents were ethnic minorities, specifically Latinx males, and most individuals involved in the 2018 incidents were between 20-28 years old.
- The highest concentration of Officer-Involved Shootings occurred in City Council District 2, the borders of which closely mirror those of APD's Frank sector. District 2 and Frank sector cover southeast Austin.

Know Your Rights – The Right to Remain Silent

Why & How We're Currently Engaging the Community to rewrite APD's General Orders

- If implemented, the following will improve:
 - Safety of community members and police officers
 - Transparency with the community
 - Increase accountability
 - Help reduce the number of use-of-force incidents by reducing the number that occur
- Improvements are key to advancing equity and reducing disparities.
- We acknowledge deficiencies
 - Power of equipping community with tools for further education & advocacy
