

MEMORANDUM

TO: Mayor and Council Members

THRU: Spencer Cronk, City Manager
Veronica Briseño, Assistant City Manager

FROM: Joya Hayes, Human Resources and Civil Service Director

DATE: April 28, 2022

SUBJECT: Living Wage Work Group Process

---

The purpose of this memorandum is to provide an overview of the living wage stakeholder review process and transmit to Council a summary of their work and recommendations.

In 2014, the City Council passed Resolution 20141016-035 which directed the City Manager to provide staff support for a stakeholder process to develop recommendations regarding the City's living wage rate and policy. During that process, stakeholders met seven times from January to May 2015, provided their recommendation to Council, and then briefed the Council. After the presentation to Council, the City Manager in conjunction with the annual budget process brought forward a plan to increase the Living Wage rate to $15.00 per hour by 2020.

Similar to the 2015 process, the Human Resources Department provided staff support by convening meetings with the community organizations who participated in the previous Living Wage Stakeholder Group. Other organizations were invited upon the Groups' recommendation.

The Group met four times: January 26, February 9 and 23, and March 9, 2022. Like the previous process, this memorandum provides the Group's recommendation to Council. The Group will present their recommendation at a future Council work session.

Attached to this memorandum are the summaries of the meeting topics, major data points reviewed, recommendations from the Group, and participating organizations. HRD and the Budget Office have preliminary provided an estimate of costs associated with a $22.00 per hour living wage rate for FY23. The costs to the City budget is estimated between $18.2M to $22.8M. These costs do not include any sworn employees.

City staff will provide more information on the budget impact, costs if sworn employees were included, and potential living wage rates that work within a balanced budget. We will also review our current pay grade structure, specifically the number of pay grades that will be impacted, projected increases, and how this impacts our current employees.

If you have any questions before the presentation by the Group occurs, please contact me.

<sup>1</sup> Cost of Labor shows the impact of the living wage in the local labor market, compared to what an employer would need to offer in Austin in order for the offer to have the same level of attractiveness to the candidate. In other words, if a potential employee in Corpus Christi might be attracted to a job at a rate of $10.01, a similar employee in Austin might not be interested until the offer was increased to $10.69.

Living Wage Work Group Recommendations

- The City should acknowledge that it is working toward a living wage and that it will take a financial commitment to provide a living wage that would meet actual living expenses.
- The City should adopt a wage rate of $22.00 per hour that accounts for compression to take effect at the beginning of Fiscal Year 2023.
- This wage rate should apply to all regular and temporary employees of the City of Austin, excluding employees in the summer youth program, regardless of position or number of hours worked.
- The City should plan to increase the wage rate each year to reach an hourly rate of $27 per hour by 2027.
- Once the City has reached a living wage, use the average of the annual increases in the CPI-U in Texas to increase the rate each year.

Please note that adjusting the living wage will also apply to any contracts the City issues for City work and require those receiving Chapter 380 incentives to pay the new rate.

It is important to note the Group's expertise and passion throughout this process. The Group wants to acknowledge their recommendations will move the City to a higher wage, but it is not an actual living wage for the City of Austin.

ANIMAL ADVISORY COMMISSION RECOMMENDATION 20220613-04D

Date: 6/13/22

Subject: Recommended increase of Living Wage to $22/hour

Motioned By: Commissioner Nilson

Seconded By: Commissioner Herrera

Recommendation

The Commission recommends that the Living Wage for all employees of the Austin Animal Center (AAC) be increased to $22 per hour.

Description of Recommendation to Council

The recommendation is self-descriptive.

Rationale:

The cost of living in Austin continues to climb. Inflation, many causes of which are beyond control of the City of Austin (COA), continues to climb. Housing costs continue to climb. With a non-livable minimum wage, recent hires either quickly apply for better-paying jobs elsewhere within the City, or leave City employment for higher-paying work in the private sector. Workers are forced to live further from their place of employment, increasing traffic congestion. Part-time workers are particularly affected, and do not remain in their positions for any length of time, all resulting in a high turnover rate, which costs the AAC time and money to recruit and train new workers. Many jobs remain vacant continually, making Shelter management more difficult. Without fixing this, budget and planning become increasingly problematic. In the end, raising the Living Wage will most likely save the AAC and the COA money, and enable the AAC to provide better services to the public.
