Dear Staff members,

I am writing in support of saving the house on 1317 Monroe, in Travis Heights. We are losing so many of our beautiful homes that contribute to the lovely historic fabric of our neighborhood.

Surely there is a way for the owner to honor the unique character of the house by saving at least the front and setback and build an addition that fits into our neighborhood.

Please do whatever you can to convince them that demolition is extreme, unnecessary and hurtful to our community. Thank for all your efforts.

Sincerely,
Susie Mauldin
