Subject: Status of City of Austin Annexations in 2022

Date: August 3, 2022

This memorandum is to provide an update on annexations that have been completed and proposed in 2022. Staff has compiled ordinance information as well as case numbers and other pertinent information for all potential annexations. Annexation information, including an interactive map, is available at: <https://austintexas.gov/page/annexation>.

As of the date of this memo, five annexations have been completed in 2022. A sixth is scheduled for Council consideration on 9/1/2022, and a seventh has been indefinitely postponed.

In relation to single member districts:

- three of the annexations were full purpose annexations of limited purpose jurisdiction areas and therefore do not require any changes to the single member districts map because all limited purpose jurisdiction areas were assigned Council Districts when the ICRC adopted the revised District map in October, 2021;
- two of the annexations were full purpose annexations of Extraterritorial jurisdiction (ETJ) and therefore are brought to the ICRC for recommended District assignments; and
- one annexation is a limited purpose annexation of ETJ and will also need to be assigned a District by the ICRC.

Staff has provided District recommendations for each of the annexation areas.

One annexation planned at the time of this memo has been scheduled for Council consideration on September 1, 2022. The ICRC may recommend a District for this annexation prospectively at its discretion.
